Editor's Note-Book

Very few people will ever forget the tragic events of this past weekend, nor are they likely to forget where they were, who they were with and what they were doing when the first news came from Dallas.

The biggest thing on tap for Thanksgiving is the arrival of out-of-towners, home for the holiday. College students should be here by Wednesday night.

Joint Thanksgiving services at churches in most towns in the area will be held Wednesday.

In case readers wonder why the Scout is out a day early this week, it was printed on Tuesday to give employees the holiday off from work.

Cancer detection clinics in Cherokee and Clay will observe Friday as a holiday, and will continue as usual the following Friday.

Julian S. Hopkins, Baptist State Director of Evangelism, will speak here at First Baptist's Training Union 'M' Night, Dec. 2, at 7:30 p.m.

The Girl Scout program is being reorganized in Hayesville, with Mrs. Glenda Hall as leader. The group will hold weekly meetings in the Velma Moore classroom at Hayesville Methodist Church.

Hunters hereabouts are ready to go after rabbits and birds on Thanksgiving day.

Of all the many hours of TV coverage given the president's death this weekend, most viewers agree that the tribute done by a group of BBC was most eloquent.

Wildcats Bring Home Class A Crown

CANTON — Andrews High's Wildcats brought home the bacon for their hometown and the Smoky Mountain Conference, in the form of the State Class A Western Regional Football Championship as they blasted Drexel here last Friday night 36-6 for the crown.

The game was played against the somber background of the news of the president's death and The Rev. Eddie Young of Canton, in a prayer before the game, eloquently paid tribute to John F. Kennedy, who had died from an assassin's bullet earlier that day in Dallas, Tex.

As in past years that Andrews has met playoff opponents on neutral ground at Canton, the field proved to be a victory setting for the Wildcats.

They have never lost a playoff game here, where four have been played.

Though Drexel scored first in the game, the Cats' confidence was never shaken, and fans familiar with the Andrews lads felt from the opening whistle that the team that won Smoky loop Class A honors could not be stopped.

The Wildcats wound up with a 10-1 season, with the lone loss coming at the hands of Sylva-Webster, the Smoky Mountain Conference Class AA champs, who sent on to win the double A championship in
