Church News

MURPHY - The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met Monday night, Nov. 25, in the Men's Bible Classroom of the Church with Mrs. Neil Sneed and Miss Adella Meroney as hostesses. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Jerry Davidson, who presided over the business session. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Hugh Brit-tain.

Others taking part on the program were Mrs. Merle Davis, Mrs. Kay Scott, Mrs. Martha Davis, with the program ended by the completion of the scripture reading, "Mary kept these things and pondered them in her heart."

The program topic "Shall We Write?" was given by Miss Emily Sword, who gave the history of leading churches in the United States that have united.

Mrs. W. H. Taylor, president, presided over the business session. It was reported that the Prayer Calendars had been ordered and $10 sent as a special Christmas offering to be used at Cherokee. Those attending the District meeting were Mrs. Merle Davis and Mrs. W. H. Taylor. The meeting was closed with prayer.

During the social hour the hostesses served refreshments to the 20 members present and one visitor present. The Guild will be hostesses to a Christmas dinner on Monday evening, Dec. 16, at 8:30 p.m. in the Recreation rooms of the church. Guests will be the Susanna Wesley Circle members.

'Christmas Carol' December 17 At Folk School

The TEL Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. John O'Dell on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 3.

BRASSTOWN - Lynn Gault will give his annual reading of Dicken's Christmas Carol Tuesday night, December 17, at eight o'clock, at the Folk School. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Nora Ford, president, presided, and also gave the devotion and a Christmas story followed by the poem "Un-awares". The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. E. L. Shields.

County AAUW Seeking Interpreters

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments to the eight members present.

MURPHY - The Cherokee County branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at the home of Mrs. W. T. Brown, Jr., on Thursday night.

The regular meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church was held on Tuesday morning, Dec. 3, in the Men's Bible classroom of the church.

Co-hostess for the evening will be Mrs. W. A. Singleton. Following a potluck supper, Mrs. C. H. Townson will present a program entitled "Festivals of the Orient", part three in the groups' study of "Occident and Orient".

Mrs. Harold Wells had charge of the program, "If you had been in Bethlehem", followed by the song, "O Come All Ye Faithful" sung by the group.

One of this year's special projects for the Cherokee County AAUW is the compilation of a list of interpreters available to foreign visitors in this area.

Bible reading was given by Mrs. Katherine Wells. Miss Jo Jo Moody sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem", accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Davidson.

Mrs. R. L. Cobb of Cul-berson, chairman of Interpreter's Service, has asked anyone who is able to speak any foreign language and willing to volunteer his services contact her or any other member of the AAUW so that the list may be as complete as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Killian of Atlanta were week-end guests of Mrs. Killian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells.
