Hinton Center Directors Hold Annual Meeting

HAYESVILLE - The Board of Directors of Hinton Center held their annual meeting Friday night and Saturday. The Friday evening session started with a supper. Miss Betty Jo Swain, a member of the local MYF gave the devotional. The Rev. Grady Burgin of Hayesville First Methodist Church welcomed the group. An hour of fellowship and singing followed. The Executive Board then met for a short session.

Dr. Horace McSwain, Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions of Statesville, presided at the Saturday conference. The Rev. Joe Law, the Rev. Grady Burgin, Miss Laura Wells of Hayesville and Miss Jennie Youngblood of Hayesville and Nashville, Tenn. gave a panel discussion on the recent music school held at Hinton Center and the Laboratory Workshop on Church Membership. They told the group this was a pilot workshop where 9 children and 15 ministers and leaders were involved.

Visiting ministers expressed the possibilities of sending seminary students to Hinton Center for similar workshops. They felt the actual contact with children would be good in service training for young ministers.

The Rev. Harold McSwain of Emory University, Atlanta, has been appointed part time director at Hinton Center while he is finishing his doctorate at Emory. He will assume this position June 1.
