Guests Admire Early Americana At Konnaheeta Heritage Tour

ANDREWS - Members of the Konnaheeta Club sponsored a Heritage Tour and Silver Tea on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. S. Freel in Valleytown.

The guests from Andrews, Fontana Village, Topton, Murphy and Robbinsville were escorted through the home by members wearing colonial costumes. An impressive collection of early American was shown in each room and an explanation of its origin and significance given.

Punch, sandwiches, nuts, mints and cheese biscuits were served in the dining room in a setting of spring flowers and candle light.

Edwin Barlow sang five Stephen Foster folk songs. Mrs. Charles Freel sang four typical American folk songs and Miss Doris Raxter rendered a quintet of songs of Sentiment. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pauline Stalcup, pianist.

Mrs. Louise Rogers played a music box at intervals and using a map of the local area, she indicated the homes of early settlers. Abram Collett entered the Cherokee Nation at Old Valleytown in 1830. Thomas Tatham erected a home in 1835. William Walker established the Indian Trading Post and Walker Inn in 1839.

Mrs. C. S. Freel, Konnaheeta president, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Walker. She is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh and did graduate work at Columbia University, N. Y. C. She is the author of the book "Our Heritage", the story of the people of Cherokee County, N. C. from 1540 to 1955.

The proceeds of the tea will be given to the Community Building Fund.

Andrews Planner To Speak At Garden Club Meeting

ANDREWS - Wayne K. Gladden, Community Planner assigned to Andrews by the Western North Carolina Regional Planning Commission will be guest speaker for the Valley River Garden Club on April 27 at the home of Mrs. William Walker at 3 p.m.

He will discuss planning in general. What it is and what it can do and tell what the Town of Andrews is doing in community planning.

This meeting was postponed from April 23 to April 27 in order to bring this particular program to the club members.

Mrs. Walker Honored At Shower

ANDREWS - The women of the Presbyterian Church honored Mrs. William Pitt Walker III with a lingerie shower in the Fellowship Hall on Wednesday, April 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Walker will join her husband in Germany at an early date.
