

Linda Weiner Named Editor At Iowa 'U'

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. - Miss Linda Weiner, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Payne of Suit, N. C. has been named Editor-in-Chief of the Daily Iowan, student daily newspaper at the University of Iowa, one of the few women in the long history of that newspaper to be so honored.

Miss Weiner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiner of 2420 Rhode Island Ave., Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Weiner is the former Miss Lois Payne of Suit.

Miss Weiner edited the St. Louis Park Echo, her high school newspaper, during her senior year.

The top editorial job on the Iowan is a 12 month, paid assignment. Miss Weiner will direct a staff of more than 100 reporters, copyreaders, editorial writers, photographers and make-up experts in the day by day publications of the six day morning newspaper.

Although affiliated with the school of journalism, the Iowan is operated by a separate corporation which maintains a modern production plant and is in direct competition with the afternoon Iowan City Newspaper.

In North Carolina... at a picnic, beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst is whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

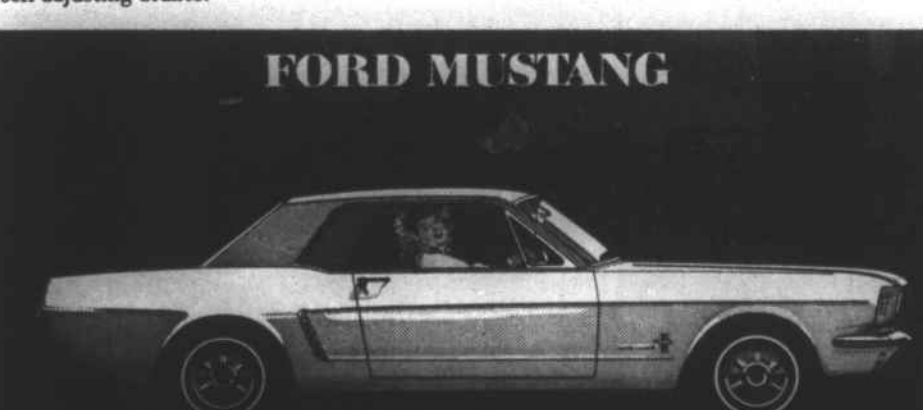

In North Carolina... beer goes with fun, with relaxation
