A Competitive Business NEW YORK—Property liability insurance coverage such as fire and automobile insurance, are sold by more than 3,000 companies, the Insurance Information Institute reports. About 900 of those companies operate in all or most states.

Sharing the Risk

NEW YORK—People who buy property and liability insurance actually are participating in a risk-sharing venture, the Insurance Information Institute notes. In other words, many persons make small contributions in the form of premiums to protect themselves against severe loss or financial hardship in the event of misfortune.
