

People and Organizations

ARTS & CULTURE

Elizabeth Rice Faullin, Orlando, Fla. Named director of marketing and communications, Arts Council of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County.

Sarah Sheffield, Cary. Promoted to cultural arts supervisor, Cary Parks and Recreation Department.

Constance C. Belton, Cary. Named arts program supervisor for Jordan Hall Arts Center, Cary Parks and Recreation Department.

CIVIC

Mary Elizabeth Francis, Charlotte. Named the 1994 recipient of the McMahon Appreciation Award from the Foundation for the Carolinas for more than 50 year of volunteer service to the community.

EDUCATION

A.L. "A" Hobgood III, Kinston. Named national chair of the Excellence Fund and president of the Co-Founders' Club of the UNC-CH School of Medicine.

A.L. Hobgood III

Kelly Godfrey Sobolik, Wilson. Appointed director of grants and research, Division of Institutional Advancement, Barton College.

UNC-Chapel Hill. Awarded Chapman Family Faculty Fellowships to: Martine Antle, Dominique

Fisher, Glenn Hinson, Norris Brock Johnson, Theodore H. Leinbaugh, Carola Mavor, Della Pollock, Marilyn Scott, Craig Turner, Dorit Bar-On, Lars Schoultz, Joel Schwartz, Keith Simmons, Weldon Thornton and Rachel Willis.

Marvin K. Moss, UNC-Wilmington. Elected chairman, Scientific Advisory Board of the Strategic Environmental Research and Development Program.

Speed Hallman. Named associate director and director of communications of the Arts and Sciences Foundation, UNC-Chapel Hill.

Lisa L. Romano. Named director of the Annual Fund, UNC-Chapel Hill.

FOUNDATIONS

Foundation for the Carolinas, Charlotte. Elected James R. Nisbet,

The new, 25,000 square-foot Hubert F. Ledford Hall on Meredith College Campus houses psychology, sociology and education departments.

Photo courtesy of Meredith College

chairman of the board; Charles T. Davidson, vice chairman; Deborah S. Harris, secretary; A. Zachary Smith III, treasurer; Marilyn M. Bradbury, assistant secretary.

Foundation for the Carolinas, Charlotte. Elected to Executive Committee: Isaac Heard Jr, Richard Osborne, Robin L. Hinson, Larry Dagenhart, Frank Emory Jr. and William L. Spencer.

Foundation for the Carolinas, Charlotte. Elected to Board of Directors:

Look for PEOPLE, page 18

PEOPLE AND ORGANIZATIONS ITEMS are due the fifth working day of each month.

The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 829-8988 for forms. Fax forms to: (919) 829-8919.

Grants and Gifts

ARTS & CULTURE

National Humanities Center, Research Triangle Park. $250,000, Glaxo Foundation, for endowment to support a series of annual public lectures, concerts and exhibitions.

UNC-TV, Research Triangle Park. Funding provided by Tiger Foundation (N.Y.), William R. Kenan Charitable Trust, CP&L, for documentary on UNC-Chapel Hill's history.

EDUCATION

Appalachian State University, Boone. $50,000 gift from C.D. Spangler Foundation, toward endowed professorship; $100,000, David H. Matthews, to programs in the College of Fine and Applied Arts.

Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer. $90,000, First Union Foundation, to college's "Legacy for Tomorrow" campaign.

Jeffrey S. Brown, Wilmington. $1,230 prize from UNC-Wilmington's Employee Suggestion System for the State of North Carolina, for Brown's cost-saving suggestion involving resurfacing blackboards.

Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem. $250,000 during 10 years from David Waddill, to establish an annual cash award of $20,000 each for two top schoolteachers who have graduated from the university.

Elon College. $50,000, Council of Independent Colleges, to participate in the Learning and Service Alliance; $50,000, Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation, for scholarships.

Robert Roer, Richard Dillman, Thomas Shafer, UNC-Wilmington. $79,608 from UNC Sea Grant Program, for proposal on blue crabs.

Durham Public Education

GRANTS AND GIFTS are due the fifth working day of each month.

The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 829-8988 for forms. Fax forms to: (919) 829-8919.

Network. $20,000, A.J. Fletcher Foundation, to seek regional and national funds and expertise for model and magnet schools.

Brevard College. $10,600 from Mrs. Clyde L. Stutts, to endow the Ina Rufus E. Stutts Scholarship fund; $25,000 matching grant from the Janivie Foundation, to upgrade foreign language laboratory.

David Webster, UNC-Wilmington. $8,000 from Langley and McDonald Co. for research on the southeastern shrew.

ENVIRONMENT

Conservation Trust for North Carolina, Raleigh. $10,000 from Lyndhurst Foundation in Chattanooga, Tenn., to support community land conservation and land trusts assistance in the Southern Appalachian region; $20,000 from Van Every Foundation, to establish the Coalition for Community Conservation; $4,000 from World Wildlife Fund, to develop a statewide network of local and regional land trusts.

Conservation Trust for North Carolina, Raleigh. More than 263 acres of woodlands on Bluff Mountain in Ace County, to guarantee the permanent protection of the natural woodland habitats.

FOUNDATIONS

The Duke Endowment, Charlotte. 60 grants made.

For hospital and health care: $2,898,427 to 179 North Carolina and South Carolina hospitals for reimbursement of $1 for each day of charity care rendered; $250,000, Almanac Health Services, to construct new hospital; $60,000, Ashe Memorial Hospital, to construct cardiac rehabilitation facility; $75,000, Bladen County Hospital, to establish a hospital health-care alliance in Wilmington; $50,000, Blowing Rock Hospital, to establish network link between area doctors; $150,000, Bruce Hospital System, Florence, S.C., to establish an early intervention program for children; $41,000, Caldwell Memorial Hospital, to establish analysis programs in six Carolinas hospitals; $30,000, Cape Fear Memorial Hospital, to establish a satellite primary care facility for elderly.

$55,000, Carobell Children's Home, Jacksonville, to construct a six-bed care facility for the mentally retarded; $115,000, Chester (S.C.) County Hospital, to establish home health care and hospice program and renovated facilities; $47,000, Cleveland Memorial Hospital, to establish analysis programs in six Carolinas hospitals; Duke University Medical Center: $1 million, to construct Medical Sciences Research Building; $750,000, to support the Levine Science Research Center; $170,000, to develop a statewide service for HIV patients; $33,000, to conduct Research/American campaign in the state.

$35,000, Gaston Health Care Support, to focus on health-care needs in the community; $15,000, Hospital Comparative Group Meetings, to fund meetings to discuss financial and operational issues with senior management hospital officials; $20,000, Johnston Memorial Hospital, to establish a hospice program; $62,000, Lexington County Health Services District, to establish analysis programs in five Carolinas hospitals; $20,000, Live Oaks Hospital, Ridgeland, S.C., to purchase van; $70,000, McLeod Regional Medical Center of the Pee Dee, to establish analysis programs in four South Carolina hospitals; $75,000, Margaret R. Pardee Memorial Hospital, Hendersonville, to establish a screening and referral service for preschool children.

$50,000, The Methodist Home, Charlotte, to refurbish the Wesley Nursing Center. $30,000, Nash General Hospital, to establish a clinical pastoral education program; $60,000, N.C. Hospital Foundation, Raleigh, to produce a series, "Health Connections"; $100,000, Onslow Memorial Hospital Authority, for building labor/delivery/recovery rooms and nursery; $200,000, Presbyterian Health Services Corp., Charlotte, to purchase building for Teen Health Connection; $110,000, Presbyterian Homes of South Carolina, to construct nursing facilities; $150,000, Rutherford Hospital, to construct building for new surgery department; $25,000, Scotland Health Group, to establish two primary care clinics; $140,000, Self Memorial Hospital, Greenwood, S.C., to develop a fetal pathology service.

$100,000, to establish a comprehensive attention deficit disorder center for children and $85,000, for cardiac rehabilitation program, South Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Columbia. $215,000, for an education initiative and $175,000, for administrative costs of a Medicaid project, South Carolina Hospital Research and Education Foundation, Columbia.

$45,000, Stanly Health Services, to establish a community health educator position; $51,500, Thoms Rehabilitation Hospital, Asheville, to purchase van to transport families; $100,000, Watauga Medical Center, to develop a community wellness program.

For Children's Homes and Services: $1,318,000 to 46 child care institutions in North Carolina and South Carolina for general operating support; $50,000, Connie Maxwell Children's Home, Greenwood, S.C., to acquire another children's home; $20,000, Elon Homes for Children, to establish a therapeutic foster family program; $75,000, Family-Centered Training Project, to train administrative staff at 12 children's homes; $20,000, Free Will Baptist Children's Homes, Middlesex, to renovate a cottage; $37,000, Jenkins Orphanage Institute, North Charleston, S.C., to increase staff; $10,000, Preparation for Adult Living Project, to prepare young adults for life after children's home; $25,000, South Carolina Association of Children's Homes and Family Services, to establish a staffed

Look for GRANTS, page 18

DON'T MISS A SINGLE WORD!

Join the thousands of nonprofits executives, development officers, funders, donors and volunteers who read the Philanthropy Journal.

NORTH CAROLINA'S MOST COMPLETE COVERAGE OF:

- Nonprofits
- Foundations
- Volunteers
- Corporate Giving
- Fundraising
- Grants and Gifts
- People and Organizations
- Calendar, Fundraising Events
- Job Openings in the Nonprofit Field

WE COVER NORTH CAROLINA LIKE NO ONE ELSE

Name		Phone
Address
City		State	Zip Code
Organization		Title
<input type="checkbox"/> 1 YEAR ($57) <input type="checkbox"/> 2 YEARS ($104) <input type="checkbox"/> 3 YEARS ($143)
<input type="checkbox"/> PLEASE BILL ME <input type="checkbox"/> CHECK ENCLOSED
MAIL TO: PHILANTHROPY JOURNAL OF NORTH CAROLINA, P.O. BOX 191, RALEIGH, NC 27601

