JUNE 1994

People and Organizations

ARTS & CULTURE

Noel Lee "Skip" Dunn, Winston-Salem. Received Leadership in the Arts Award, Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, Winston-Salem. Katey Boerner, Raleigh. Named executive director for Artsplosure.

Katey Boerner

Linda Tall Sigmon, Oxford. Named director of development at the North Carolina Museum of Art.

Mary B. Regan, Raleigh. Received Career Service Award for her work with the North Carolina Arts Council

Governor James B. Hunt recognized twelve businesses and nonprofit organizations for their contributions to North Carolina's cultural climate. Hiddenite Center, Inc., Hiddenite; Union County Community Arts Council, Monroe; Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, Winston -Salem; Wilkes Chamber of Commerce, North Wilksboro; Alvaro Coronado, Wilson; Cedar Creek Gallery and Pottery, Creedmoor; Herman Construction Company, Jefferson; Bank of Granite, Hickory; El Mex Restaurant, New Bern; Southern Webbing Mills Inc., Greensboro; Northern Telecom, Inc., Research Triangle Park; Southern Bell, Charlotte.

John G. Medlin Jr., Winston-Salem. Named chairman of the board of the Thomas S. Kenan Institute for the Arts.

David Ballesteros, Cary. Honored by Glaxo, Inc. for donating more than 124 hours to Artspace in Chapel Hill.

CIVIC

W. B. "Bill" Austin, Jr., Winston-Salem. Named food solicitor of the Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina.

Monica Doss, Research Triangle Park. Awarded 1994 Leadership Award for entrepreneurial leadership and for promoting the interests of women managers in North Carolina.

Steve Denning, Cary. Elected governor of Rotary International District 7710.

Stan Ingram, Middlesex. Honored by Glaxo, Inc. for donating more than 1,100 hours to the Tar River Composite Squadron Civic Air Patrol

EDUCATION

Phi Kappa Phi honor society, UNC-Wilmington. Inducted ninety-six students and four faculty members. Dr. William Dallas Herring was guest speaker at the ceremony

Thomas C. Shandley, Davidson College. Appointed vice president for Student Life and Dean of Students

Dr. Beth Wilson, Raleigh. Appointed Alumni Distinguished Professor, North Carolina State University

Dr. Louis Adcock, Wilmington. Selected for the North Carolina Distinguished Service to the Profession of Chemistry Award 1994.

Mike C. Coffey, Greensboro. Appointed manager of employment and salary administration for the Center for Creative Leadership

Sylvester Taylor, Greensboro. Promoted to director of the Computer Services Group of the Center for Creative Leadership.

Jeanne H. Kerstiens, Rocky Mount. Named director of foundation and alumni relations for North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Frederick V. Moore, Rocky Mount. Promoted to vice president of development and general counsel for North Carolina Wesleyan College

Cindy Hope, Rocky Mount. Promoted to assistant to the president for North Carolina Wesleyan

College

Marion Jones, Durham. Honored by Glaxo, Inc. for donating more than 500 hours to Sherwood Githens School in Durham.

FOUNDATION

Brenda Penney, Winston-Salem. Appointed director of Donor Services for the Winston-Salem Foundation.

Steve Johnson, Grace Vineyard, Hendersonville. Appointed to the board of directors Community Foundation of Henderson County

FUNDRAISING

Mary Wheless, Raleigh. Named volunteer chairperson for the 1995 "A Toast to the Triangle" fundraising event for the Tammy Lynn Center.

O. Morton Congleton, Raleigh. Appointed Capital Campaign chairman for Project Gaddy, Raleigh.

Helmer N. Ekstrom, New York, N.Y. Appointed president of the American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel, Inc. and the AAFRC Trust for Philanthropy.

Gene Whitmire and John Heath, Raleigh. Named co-chairmen, The Charlie Gaddy Invitational Golf Tournament to benefit United Cerebral Palsy of North Carolina

HEALTH

Linda Castleberry, Tom Maskornick, Charles Benz, Donald Woodin, Lynne Spiller and Robb Myer, named partners at First Counsel , Inc. Charlotte.

Jim Graeber, Concord, Linda Jones, Kinston. Appointed members of North Carolina Senior Games, Inc. Board of Directors

Alice Keene, Greenville. Received Robert L. Mason Distinguished Service Award for her work as president of the North Carolina Senior Games, Inc. Board of Directors.

Frank Charlotte, Charlotte, Named division director of the American Heart Association, North Carolina.

James Barry, Chapel Hill. Named deputy executive vice president of the American Heart Association, North Carolina

Ann H. Stephens, Winston-Salem. Appointed area executive

Look for People, page 18

PEOPLE AND ORGANIZA-TIONS ITEMS are due the fifth working day of each month. The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 829-8988 for forms. Fax forms to: (919) 829-8919.

Grants and Gifts

ARTS & CULTURE

Center for Public Television $1,000 grant from Berina World of Sewing and New Bern Fabric Center to support broadcast of the new PBS series "Sewing Today;" $100,000 grant from State Farm Insurance Companies to support broadcast of the series "The Woodwright's Shop;" $12,000 grant from The Inlimate Bookshop to support the "Reading Rainbow Book Club;" $18,000 grant from Carolina Power & Light Company to support broadcast of the series "Hometime.

The Women's Center Raleigh. $10,000 grant from Glaxo in support of the Center's Tenth Annual Art Show.

Museum of Life and Science Durham. $30,000 grant from The A. J. Fletcher Foundation for the exhibit "What Makes Music?" on display from May 28 - Sept. 5, 1994

BUSINESS

Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce. Chamber members Bob and Susan Scott-Hopkins have committed their Company, Impact ommercial Photography Studios. to the "Education; Top Priority" program to promote education.

Belmont Abbey College. $45,000 from Fulbright-Hayes for Project Abroad Program to send 12 Gaston and Mecklenburg public and private educators to the Middle East for a 5-week seminar.

North Carolina Alliance of Community Financial Institutions $16,000 in scholarships for four high school seniors.

Shaw University. $200,000 grant from the United Negro College Fund and the Ford Foundation to help ward off acts of violence within Wake Public Schools

UNC-Chapel Hill $250,000 gift from Frank and Carol Stout toward a new building at the School of Dentistry; $15,000 gift from Sprint/Carolina Telephone to underwrite a year-long fellowship for a female or minority doctoral candidate's first year of study.

UNC- Wilmington. $50,000 gift from Landmark Homes, Inc. to establish the Landmark Homes Merit Endowment Scholarship; $200,000 from NationsBank to establish the NationsBank growing Scholars Program; $240,000-$400,000 Principle Fellows Program, funded by the North Carolina General Assembly for scholarships for people seeking a master's degree in educational administration; $21,000 from Sphinx Pharmaceuticals awarded to Dr. Joseph Pawlik for a collaborative project investigating pharmacological activities of extracts of marine organisms; a summer stipend by the National Endowment for the Humanities awarded to Dr. Keith Newlin, assistant professor of English for research; $8,000 awarded to Dr. David Webster for his research at Elbow Lakes Estates, Chesapeake, Virginia by Langley and McDonald Company.

for renovation of the Pearsall Fine Arts Center; $11,500 from the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Foundation for scholarships. For construction of new perform-ing arts complex: $12,500 from Southern Bank, $25,000 from the Rocky Mount Merchants Association, $30,000 from First Citizens Bank, $15,000 from Standard Products, $10,000 each from D. J. Rose & Son and Carolina Power and Light Company, and $100,000 from Centura Bank and Boddie-Noell Enterprises

ENVIRONMENT

The Eureka Vacuum Cleaner Company. Award of recognition to Brendle's for its participation in the "World Vac Helping Our World Program," under which a portion of the purchase price of World Vac vacuum cleaners sold by Brendle's is donated to the National Parks Foundation and the American Heart Association

FOUNDATIONS

Community Foundation of Henderson County. $3,000, American Red Cross; $1,000, Blue Ridge Prison Ministry; $4,000, The Diocese of WNC; $2,000, The Healing Place; $1,000, Human

First United Methodist Church-Preschool scholarships; $2,500, The Healing Place; $2,000 H.C. 4-H & Youth Development; $1,200, H.C. Solid Waste Management; $450, Henderson County Public Schools; $4,000 Housing Assistance Corporation; $1,500 Interfaith Assistance Ministry; $3,300, Mainstay; $5,000, Parent Assistance Leuaue

Community Foundation of Western North Carolina. Twenty seven new grants, $91,753.60: $7,500, Affordable Housing Coalition of Asheville and Buncombe County, for creation of affordable housing; $3,000, AWAKE, to train local professionals in how to work on child abuse and neglect cases; $5,000, Blue Ridge Community Action, to provide train-ing for developing home day care; ,000, Cherokee County Arts Council , to help support a part-time executive director; $3,000, Eliada Homes, to expand the Alternatives for Families Program; $905, Family Services Center, for a new counciling program in Buncombe County; $2,000, A Father's Place, for development of a center to serve the needs of fathers in Buncombe County; $500, Historic Resources Commission for Asheville and Buncombe County, to develop a retrospective exhibit on architect Richard Sharp Smith; $5,000, Hospitality House of Asheville, to operate loan pool to help homeless people pay initial expenses for independent living accommodations; $3,500, Intermountain Children's Services, to provide swimming lessons for low income pre-school ers; $2,000, Lewis Rathbun Wellness Center, to purchase playground equipment.; $2,000, Macon Citizens Enterprises, to modify work stations at the sheltered workshop and settings in the community to provide for disabled employees; $3,000, Macon Program for Progress, to open an office to be used by multiple social service agencies; $1,500, Magnolia House, to help start a Mobile Crew at this day program for mentally ill adults in Rutherford County; $2,000, Mountain Housing opportunities, to purchase play equipment for affordable housing in East Asheville; $2,500, New Beginnings/Office of Rural Education at Western North Carolina University, toward work-shops and individual follow-up for low-income parents; $4,500, Pack Place Education, Arts and Science Center, to help launch an annual Summer Shakespeare Festival; $1,000, Penland School of Crafts, provide scholarships for needy children to attend Art and Nature Day Camps in Mitchell and Yancey Counties; $10,000, Pisgah Legal Services, to launch Children's Law Project, in Buncombe, Rutherford, Polk, Transylvania, Madison and Henderson Counties; $7,500, Riverlink, for development of public greenways; $7,500, Southern Environmental Law Center, for policy work on the Southern Appalachian Mountain Initiative; $2,500 Southern Reconciliation Ministries, to renovate this agency that provides food/clothing/emergency assistance to needy citizens in Yancey County; $1,000, Transylvania Literacy Council , for new workplace-oriented tutoring to help unemployed and underemployed residents of Transylvania County; $5,000, WNC Community Health Services, to support a startup for day health care program in Asheville for low-income adults with the HIV virus or AIDS; $6,000, WNC Habitat for Humanity, to support renovations of Habitat's Home Store in downtown Asheville; $848.60, WNC Regional Child Abuse Center, to purchase books and videos for the Center's library; $1,500, Yancey County 4-H, for three-day environmental camp sessions for youths from Avery, Mitchell, Yancey and Madison Counties. Fund for Southern Communities Awarded $64,500 in grants. N.C. recipients were: $1,500 to Grassroots Leadership, Charlottte; $2,000 Hobgood Citizens Group, Hobgood; $3,000 West End Community Center, Durham; $1,000 Robeson Defense Committee, Robeson; $4,500 Alamance Gay and Lesbian Alliance, Haw River; $3,140 Gay and Straight Alliance, Chapel Hill; $1,000 North Carolina Lesbian and Gay Pride, Charlotte; $1,200 Religion and Diversity Project, Asheville; $2,000 North

Carolinians Against Racist and Religious Violence, Durham; $1,000 PRIDE, Asheville; $3,000, Center for Women's Economic Alternatives, Ahoskie; $2,500 North Carolina Worthy Wage Campaign; $4,000, UNC Housekeepers Association, Chapel

Foundation For The Carolinas, Charlotte. Awarded $36,000 in grants: $5,000 to the Carolina Foundation for Oral health, to hire a clinic coordinator for a new dental clinic for the Uptown Center/George Shinn Center in Charlotte.; $5,000 to Charlotte Emergency Housing, to hire parttime research assistant for housing program for women and families; $3,000 to Crisis Assistance Ministry, to develop a children's educational play center at their facility; $5,000 to the Plaza Adult Living Service , to open a new site for the adult care/ health care center in the Memorial Baptist Church; $5,000 to Shepherd's Center, to hire part-time executive director to coordinate activities for senior citizens in east Charlotte; $5,000 to Turning Point of Union County, to implement a transitional housing program for women and children; $8,000 to the Foundation for The Carolinas, in summer campership grants.

First Gaston Foundation $150,000 to Belmont Abbey College, to expand and enhance business programs; $30,000 to The Leadership Triangle Program, to educate the next generation of local leaders on the issues facing the Triangle as a region.

Council for Entrepreneurial Development. $1,000 grants from Alex Brown & Sons and Apex Bioscience, Inc. for the encouragement and support of entrepreneurship through education, mentoring, capital formation and networking.

NationsBank, Statewide founding sponsor for support of Senior Games programs statewide

EDUCATION

Appalachian State University $50,000 endowed scholarship from Dr. Elbert V. Bowden, professor of banking in Appalachian State University's Walker College of Business.

Brevard College. $10,000 gift from a trust set up by Clyde R. Hoey, Jr. for his wife, Ruth M. Hoey. North Carolina Wesleyan College.$24,000 grant from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, Inc. in support of the College's radio station; $15,000 from ITG Companies

Services Institute; $1,000, Hunger Coalition; $1,000, Interfaith Assistance Ministry; $2,500, United Way; $1,000, Environmental Conservation Org.; $2,800, Charles Richard Hedge, aged 5; $500, Hospice; $1,000, Trend Mental Health; $1,000, United Way; $300, Sigma Alpha Epsilon Foundation; $500, Washington State University; $1,000, Blue Ridge Community College; $500, Henderson County Public Schools; $3,000 Henderson Symphony; $800, Four Seasons Arts Council; $6,000, Pardee Hospital; $1,613, Interfaith Assistance Ministry; $5,000, Absolute Theatre; $8,000, Blue Ridge Community Health Services; $2,600, Children's Christmas; $3,000, Dispute Settlement Center; $200, Downtown Hendersonville; $1,000,

The Pew Charitable Trusts. $300,000, to MDC, Inc., Chapel

Look for GRANTS, page 18

GRANTS AND GIFTS are due the fifth working day of each month. The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 829-8988 for forms. Fax forms to: (919) 829-8919.