Wesleyan Guild Has April Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church held its April meeting Monday evening at the Methodist parsonage, home of Rev. and Mrs. Ivon L. Roberts, with Mrs. Charles C. Cloninger, Jr., and Mrs. Dick Jones, hostesses.

Arrangements of gladioli and spring greenery decorated the living room and the den, and at the conclusion of the meeting a salad course with coffee was served.

Miss Mae Tucker presented the devotional, a series of stereopticon slides depicting the last week of Christ's life on earth, the crucifixion, the resurrection, and the transfiguration. Miss Ann Kendrick was in charge of the program, and presented Mrs. Tom McConnell, who gave an inspiring address on the Christian use of time. Miss Doris Clark, Guild president, conducted the business session, and Mrs. J. P. Smith, chairman of the 1950 nominating committee, presented the committee's slate of officers for the new year. The new officers elected by acclamation, will be installed at the general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in May.

Special guests at the meeting were Rev. Ivon L. Roberts, pastor of the church, Mrs. Frank L. Rankin, president of the Woman's Society, and Mrs. Harold Williams of Memphis, Tennessee, a former Guild member. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining and serving by Mrs. Roberts, the lady of the parsonage, and her daughter, Miss Norma Roberts.

Ramseys Entertain Miss Frances Hollar, Mr. Tommy Whiteside

Miss Frances Hollar and Tommy Whiteside, whose marriage will be an event of Easter Sunday, were honored Wednesday evening by the latter's sister, Mrs. Will Ramsey and Mr. Ramsey of Lincoln, who entertained at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Whiteside on the Stanley road with a buffet supper.

Arrangements of yellow jonquils and spring greenery were used throughout the home, and in the dining room the table was overlaid with a handsome lace cloth and centered with a bowl of the same flowers.

Upon arrival the bride-elect was presented a shoulder bouquet of white baby orchids, and later in the evening she received a gift of silver in her wedding pattern. "Bride" was played during the evening, and prizes awarded the winners.

Guests included Miss Hollar, Mr. Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollar, parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Whiteside, parents of the bridegroom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson, Misses Barbara and Glenda Hollar, and Gwyn Hollar, all of Mount Holly, and Miss Rita Ramsey and Randy Ramsey of Lincoln.

New Society Circle Added By Methodists

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church has added another circle to the group which makes up the society membership, according to an announcement by the president, Mrs. Frank L. Rankin. The circle formerly known as No. 3 divided its membership last week, making an additional organization within the society. During the last year, also, a Home Circle was organized, consisting of women of the church who for some reason may not be able to attend the circle meetings, or under some circumstance find it impossible to maintain membership in any of the other circles. Members of the Home Circle enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership in the Woman's Society, but do not regularly attend meetings. Ten members have been enrolled in this circle. At the present time the membership of the Society, which includes four circles, the Home Circle and the Wesleyan Service Guild, is 115, Mrs. Rankin stated.
