

Local & Society

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Everything to Build With WATKINS & BULLOCK

Miss Marjorie Griffin and L. M. Carlton, Jr., left yesterday for a visit to Miss Griffin's home at Norfolk, Va.

Miss Mamie Love Barnett, who has been a patient at Watt's hospital for several days has returned to this city and is now at the home of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleidith Oakley and children, of Greenville, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oakley.

R. E. Hamlin, Jr., of Kinston is spending a short time here with his parents.

Charles L. Ball, Jr., was a Durham visitor yesterday.

Dr. J. D. Fitzgerald, Roxboro surgeon, on Monday moved his office from the Wilburn and Satterfield building and is now located on the second floor of the Thomas-Carver building, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Puckett spent Sunday in Burlington as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Puckett.

Miss Frances Gardner has returned to her home in Washington, N. C. after spending the past week here as guests of Miss O. Clayton.

Buddy Allgood, who is attending summer school at U. N. C., spent the weekend here.

Misses Anne Tyree and Lidia Lee Bailey have returned to Altavista, Va., after spending the past week here as guest of Miss Frances Pointer.

Miss Grace O. Clayton is spending the week in Chapel Hill with friends.

L. Sanders McWhorter is visiting friends in Huntington, W. Va., for a few days.

Guy Gardner was a Chapel Hill visitor Monday.

L. L. Harvey and M. C. Clayton spent several hours on Durham Tuesday on business.

William Way, Jr., of the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, spent the weekend as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carlton.

GOOD FOOD ALWAYS ROXBORO DINER

First Baptist Church

9:45 a. m. - Bible School.
11:00 a. m. - Preaching by the pastor.
7:00 p. m. - B. T. U.
8:00 p. m. - Preaching by the pastor.

Observance of the Lord's Supper, at the close of the morning worship service.

A cordial welcome is extended to the public.

W. F. West, Pastor.

MEATS

Plenty of beef, pork, and lamb, and a better consumer demand for these meats this summer than last are indicated by the current livestock situation report.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES FOR RESULTS.

FASHION PREVIEW

THESE young clubmen-to-be are quite conscious of their charm and well dressed look as they step out in identical Botany flannel blazers, striped in red and white. Very dashing and very masculine. June Harper's Bazaar suggests the blazers to be worn with summer poplin suits of white and regulation low white Hood Rubber sneakers for scuffling small feet.

Misses Winstead and Bradsher Honored At Hotel Dinner-Bridge

Honoring Miss Anna Wooding Winstead and Miss Annie Long Bradsher, brides-elect of this month, Misses Ovidia Long and Margaret Hannah Critcher were joint hostesses at an elaborate dinner-bridge Tuesday evening at Hotel Roxboro.

Dinner was served at 7 o'clock in the hotel dining room. On the long center table and at a shorter one placed at the end of the room covers were laid for thirty-nine persons, including the honorees and the two hostesses. A green and white decorative scheme, with pink accents were carried out. White tones were introduced in the table linen and in vases of daisies, while green tapers and additional vases of pink gladioli completed the attractive setting. Guests found their places at the table by means of hand-painted place cards, designed by J. V. King and Miss Frances Critcher.

Following the full course dinner tallies were passed and bridge was played at twelve tables. Winners of high score was Mrs. Wallace Harris, while low score was received by Miss Jean Morton and visitor's prize was awarded to Miss Hassie Leigh Warren, of Durham. Also receiving gifts were Miss Daphne Wilson, of Bartow, Fla., house guest of Miss Ovidia Long, and the two honorees, Misses Winstead and Bradsher, each of whom received separate gifts of silver in their respective wedding patterns from the two hostesses.

Many of the guests of the evening were the honorees' intimate friends of this city, but other out of town guests included Miss Jean Gray Scott, Miss Scottie Andrews and Miss Annie Hurdle Walker, all of Graham, Mrs. E. J. Hamlin, of Burlington, Miss Becky Brogden, of Durham, and Mrs. Clarence L. Pemberton, of Yanceyville.

Miss Bray Weds Aubrey Clayton At High Point

A marriage of interest in Roxboro, where the groom and his parents reside, took place on Saturday, June 29, at High Point, when Miss Mary Jane Bray, daughter of D. T. Bray, of that city, was married to Aubrey J. Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clayton. Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton are at home in Roxboro, where they have an apartment in the residence of the groom's parents.

Wirtz - Bradsher Invitations Issued

Invitations were this week issued by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Egbert Bradsher, of this city, to the marriage of their daughter, Annie Long, to George Woodrow Wirtz, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday, the 17th, of July, at five-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, at St. Mary and Edward's Catholic church, Roxboro.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES FOR RESULTS.

Tucker - Stauffer Vows Are Spoken Here Saturday

In an impressive home ceremony at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gates, of this city, Miss Helen Tucker, of Roxboro and South Boston, Va., on Saturday afternoon, June 29, was united in marriage with Kenneth S. Stauffer, of Roxboro and Philadelphia, Pa. The vows were heard at five o'clock by the Rev. W. F. West, pastor of Roxboro First Baptist church.

For her nuptials the bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Tucker, of South Boston, and who is secretary to S. M. Ford, resident manager of the local plant of the Collins and Aikman corporation, wore a pastel pink afternoon gown, and carried a white prayer book.

Mr. Stauffer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Stauffer, of Philadelphia, is also connected with the Collins and Aikman Corporation, where he is assistant office manager.

Decorations for the wedding were in traditional green and white, with an improvised altar of pines, accented with three candelabra containing white tapers. After the wedding which took place in the living room of the Gates' residence, guests were invited to the dining room for refreshments. Dominant decorative note at the bride's table was a tiered wedding cake with miniature figures of a bride and groom at the top. The punch table was also enhanced with green and white floral arrangements similar to those on the bride's table.

Following the cake-cutting, the young couple left on a northern wedding trip and after their return will be at home in this city. Present for the ceremony were a number of intimate Roxboro friends and out of town guests, including the bride's father, G. C. Tucker.

LAND POSTED SIGNS AT THE TOWN OFFICE

Miss Bradsher Honored At Party Held In Oxford

Hostess at bridge in honor of Miss Annie Long Bradsher, charming Roxboro bride-to-be of the month, was Mrs. Robert Ray, Jr., of Oxford, who entertained Monday at her home in that city. Also an honor guest at the affair was Miss Katharine Blalock, of Oxford, whose engagement was recently announced.

To the honorees attractive gifts were presented by the hostess. High score awards were also presented. Decorations were attractive arrangements of early summer flowers, while refreshments consisted of a salad course, iced tea, and cake. Roxboro guests, in addition to Miss Bradsher, were Misses Jean and Frances Morton, Margaret Hannah Critcher and Margaret Hester.

Miss Woody Is Honored On Her Eighth Birthday

In celebration of the eighth birthday of her young niece, Miss Mary Belle Woody, Mrs. R. B. Woody recently entertained at her home at Woodland Heights, this city. About thirty-five young friends of the honoree were present to enjoy games and refreshments. Assisting the hostess with serving were Mesdames J. J. and Clyde Woody and Miss Lucille Woody.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley Honors Guest

Honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cleidith J. Oakley, of Greenville, Mrs. R. H. Oakley on Tuesday afternoon was hostess at bridge and rook at Hotel Roxboro.

Bridge was enjoyed at three tables, while there were two tables of rook. High score for bridge was received by Mrs. W. E. Ma-

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

John Hancock
Samuel Adams
John Adams
James Otis
Thomas Jefferson
George Washington
Benjamin Franklin
John Jay
Robert R. Livingston
Roger Sherman
Elbridge Gerry
Francis Pickens
Charles Carroll
Thomas Mifflin
George Mason
Patrick Henry
John Hancock
Samuel Adams
John Adams
James Otis
Thomas Jefferson
George Washington
Benjamin Franklin
John Jay
Robert R. Livingston
Roger Sherman
Elbridge Gerry
Francis Pickens
Charles Carroll
Thomas Mifflin
George Mason
Patrick Henry

lone, honors at rook were won by Mrs. A. W. Clayton. The honoree, Mrs. Oakley, also received a gift from the hostess. Later in the afternoon refreshments were served. Decorations were early summer flowers in attractive arrangements.

persons, according to the monthly farm labor report of the U. S. Agricultural Marketing service.

EMPLOYMENT

The June 1 estimate of total farm employment was 11,896,000

IMPROVEMENT
Industrial conditions affecting the domestic consumer demand for farm products are expected to continue the improvement in evidence since April if active warfare in Europe continues.

Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness... These were the principles which made our history-building forefathers the architects of a new future... Today we honor their courage and their Declaration, more conscious of our birthright than ever before. In their spirit America marches forward amidst the tumult and the turmoil of a war-torn world. To America belongs the heritage of bringing solace and order to weary men. This is the spirit of America! To that spirit we pledge ourselves.

Leggett's Dept. Store

