Miss Annie Sue Barrett Weds

Sgt. Clyde G. Whitt In Private Rites

Miss Annie Sue Barrett, of Roxboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barrett, of this City, was united in marriage with Sgt. Clyde Gregory Whitt, United States Army Air Corps, a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Whitt, Sr., also of Roxboro, in a simple evening ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on Tuesday, Oct. 12, by the Rev. E. C. Maness, pastor of Brookdale Methodist church, of which both the bride and bridegroom and their families are members.

The vows were spoken at seven o'clock in the evening, with only members of the two families and intimate friends as witnesses. Floral decorations were in traditional green and white, with an improvised altar lighted with cathedral tapers in candelabras.

Music was by Mrs. Wallace Woods, pianist, whose selections included the wedding music of Wagner and Mendelssohn.

Costume of the bride was in blue with a corsage of red roses. Mother of the bride wore dark velvet, while mother of the bridegroom chose blue crepe. Both had corsages of talisman roses.

The bride, now engaged in war work in Charlotte, is a graduate of Roxboro high school and of Louisburg college, while the bridegroom is a graduate of Rox-high school and was during his residences here active in Boy Scout work. Prior to entering the Army has been connected with Woody's Funeral home, but for the past several months has been stationed at Fort Meyers, Fla., and after completing his furlough is expected to go to Utah for further training.

Sgt and Mrs. Whitt, after a brief wedding trip, are expected to return to Roxboro for a few days. Two of the bridegroom's brothers, Cpl. Landon Whitt, and Pfc. P. T. Whitt, Jr., returned to their respective stations Saturday, day before the bridegroom arrived in Roxboro.

Miss Parham And Cpl. Zenobia Wed In Washington

Mr. and Mrs. James Parham, of Roxboro, are today announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edna Mae Parham, of Roxboro and Washington, to Cpl. John Conrad Zenobia, Jr., United States Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Zenobia, of Wood-Ridge, N. J., on Saturday, October 2, at St. Stephen's church Washington.

The bride, who wore a costume of black and white, with an orchid corsage, was given in marriage by her brother, Pfc. Leonard Earl Parham, United States Army, Washington. Maid of honor was Miss Delma Foushee and best man was Frank Romano. Other attendants were Miss Edith Kraus and Tom Jester.

The bride, a graduate of Roxboro high school, now has a position with the Life Insurance company, Washington, while the bridegroom is stationed at Marine Headquarters, Arlington. At home: 1463 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington.
