AMERICAN HEROES
by WOODY COWAN

PARACHUTE Infantry Sgt. Ray E. Eubanks, La Grange, N. C., awarded a Medal of Honor posthumously, died after clubbing to death 4 Japs with his rifle in a machine gun and mortar nest. Going to the relief of a platoon isolated by the enemy in Dutch New Guinea, he crawled to the Nips' position, was wounded and his rifle crippled, but charged in, swinging. After a shot dropped Eubanks, his squad killed 45 and effected the relief. War Bonds help equip such heroes. U. S. Treasury Department

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS—
From just any old Salesman
To my customers:

Due to my independent position as a salesman, I have decided to show my line at a time best suited to my convenience. At the moment it pleases me to permit you to view merchandise on Tuesdays between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 P.M. This will allow me to extend my week ends without interruption and also to permit me to devote my morning to rest and recreation.

NOTE:— The above regulations apply only during the National Emergency. After the war I'll be around begging you for your business as usual.

BLACK MOUNTAIN AND SWANNAOIA LIONS ROAR

The Lions Club of Black Mountain and Swannanoa were hosts to a mighty fine bunch of Lions recently from almost everywhere, — from the mountains, from the valleys and cities from all around.

Herb Sanders was out in the front row with his monthly reports for the whole year. Herb believes in doing things up right— each report was sent in within five days after the last club meeting of each month.

The Lions Club is now frozen to an active membership of fifty members, and are most certainly an up-and-at-em bunch of Lions.

It is wonderful what a few good men under the name of Lions Club can mean to the community. By sponsoring various things for the welfare of Black Mountain and Swannanoa people, it should have due credit.

Many things here-to-fore that the Lions Club have done has gone unnoticed as they only had a mouth-to-ear method of letting people know what they were doing. BUT from now on, bet your money on the Black Mountain News that you will get a welcome hand in any and all activities that you may be engaged in, in the future. In their last bulletin, the Lions gave us a good boost, may we in the future deserve this confidence. We will assure you that we will not betray it.

By H. GRADY HARDIN

Until powerful machines were developed only a few years ago, building roads in these mountains was a tedious and difficult job. With a little powder, many men and picks mules and pans roads that wound around the cove finally reached the nearest gap. The super highways of to-day are quite different. With huge machines that have unlimited power nothing is too great an obstacle to move. The valleys are filled and the mountains are lowered until the highway now becomes the shortest distance between two points. In 1920 the road from Black Mountain to Asheville was a great compromise with the "lay of the land". Tomorrow it will be a transformation of the land.

A better community and world will come when we develop the power of character in proportion to the development in the machines. Human relationship have been built by a compromise with existing orders so long that the highways to a better order hug the valleys of our selfish desires and cling precariously to the cliffs of wreckless chance. When we have learned the art of using the power of high purpose, a broad love, and a deep devotion, we will have learned to build roads for better human relationships that transform the land.

The prophet Isaiah said this magnificent when he said: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed". (Isaiah 40: 3,5)

Dougherty Heights Inn
To Be Open All Winter

Dougherty Heights Inn, located on the corner of Dougherty and Connally Streets will be open all winter. Work is progressing rapidly with the installation of a modern heating system.

Heretofore, the Inn has been operated primarily as a summer hotel, but the demand for rooms has been so great; that priority was granted Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, owners of Dougherty Heights, to install heat in an effort to relieve the housing congestion experienced generally throughout this section.

The Inn expects to accommodate a number of service wives and personnel of Moore General Hospital during the fall and winter months.

The present guest list at Dougherty Heights is as follows: Mr.

W. A. Smith, Mrs. J. C. S. O'Leary and Mrs. W. I. Easterlin, Walter-MacGlashon, Datona Beach, Fla.; Miss Emily Kennedy, St. Augustine, Fla.; Mrs. Myra Taylor, Gainesville, Fla.; Mr. W. E. APPETIZERS

Appetizer salads are probably the most versatile of salads. Besides their ability to shine as an admirable first course for a hearty dinner, they are ideal for tea, bridge and porch parties.

A small serving is the first rule for such a salad. Color, arrangement, shape and texture all enter into the picture. And of course ingredients should be well chilled, the dressing piquant. The other foods that are being served, the occasion and the season will determine whether a fruit, raw vegetable, or fish salad is to be featured.

Another popular idea is to line up the "makings"—letting your family or guests choose their own food favorites in concocting a salad to their liking.

Uncle Sam asks that 900,000 more sows be bred to farrow this fall than last year. The national fall pig production goal is 37 million.

A builder's journal tells us the Saturday Evening Post will add another story after the war.

OUR FAMOUS SOUTHERN RECEIPES

LEMON ICE CREAM PIE

Whip until stiff one large can of thoroughly chilled evaporated milk. To this add one half cup of sugar and the juice and grated yellow rind of two lemons. Beat rapidly until congealed and place at once into ice pans which have been lined with Graham crackers. Sprinkle top with a few cracker crumbs and place in freezing unit until frozen. This makes a delicious as well as an inexpensive dessert. It is also very good for children and invalids.

Landlord Not Making Repairs

Daniel Webster was one day calling on ex-President John Adams who, was falling rapidly in health, as they were talking on topics of the day, a friend came and ask the aged man how he was feeling. — Adams replied: "As a matter of fact I inhabit a week, frail and decayed tenement, battered by the winds and broken in upon by the storms and, from all appearances, the landlord does not intend to make repairs.

EVEN TREES IN MONTREAT HAVE SACRED TOUCH

John C. Cork and family are spending the summer months at "Cork Cottage" in Montreat.

Mr. Cook was in the News office this morning with a cut from a popular tree he had cut down in his yard at his home.

The tree was about eight and one half inches in diameter and has a perfect cross in the center, a natural formation. The cross is jet black against the white poplar wood, makes it really a freak of nature.

Add corn syrup to sugar and your homecanned fruit will score high in texture, flavor, color, and general appearances.
