

Black Mountain LIBRARY NEWS

New Books at the Library—
"BEHOLD YOUR KING" by Florence M. Bower is a truly compelling novel that has for its setting the Holy land at the time of Christ. It is the story of a young man, who at the cost of being renounced by family and friends, cannot deny his belief in the great teacher, Jesus of Nazareth.

Especially for teen-agers. "The MAGNIFICENT BARB" by Dara Faralla. Kevin's dream of a horse with a white foot becomes a reality, with the coming of the magnificent Barb. This horse exerts a magic influence on an improvident Irish family. Fame spreads beyond the paddock.

"MAGNOLIA HEIGHTS" by Nancy Paschal. A world of dogs! That was what Mary found when she went to work for Dr. Grant, the veterinarian.

"FRIDAY'S CHILD" by Mrs. Janet Lambert. Girls who have had "Just Jenifer" will enjoy re-viewing an old acquaintance in "Friday's Child".
