Miss Adelaide Johnson, a Chicago girl, has a modeling studio in the billiard room at Calumet place, Mrs. Logan's home, and is at work on a heroic bust of Gen. Logan.

Mr. W. Story, the sculptor, writes from Rome stating that his design for the Grant monument has been misrepresented.

A dispatch from Augusta, Ga., says: The Mormon missionaries, who have been preaching in the Wrightboro Districts of this county and who have succeeded in converting a large number of ignorant people to their religion, have greatly excited the people, who are opposed to them in that section, and, in fact, the whole county is in a fever.

With this object in view they proceeded to the home of J. L. Farmer, residing in the town of Wrightboro, where the Mormons had been staying, but upon arriving there they found the Mormons had flown.

They are, however, determined to rid the county of the Mormons, and make them swim for their return. From appearances there will probably be bloodshed before the end of the week.

A curious story regarding Birmingham from Madrid, "The Man of Metz," as the French call him, one afternoon a few days ago stepped into a cab, which was kept by a Frenchman, but of this fact Baszine was ignorant.
