A Detroit Local Politician Instantly Killed.
Detroit, Mich., July 26.—Captain William Owen, a well known market butcher and local politician, was instantly killed this morning.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—The Interior Department has today decided the case of the Traders and Travelers' Union, against the Philadelphia and Reading and the Lehigh Valley roads, involving the question of the free transportation of 150 pounds of extra baggage for passengers covering their baggage with registry and indemnity certificates issued by the Traders' Union. These roads, about April 1, refused to honor these certificates on the ground that it was prohibited by the Interstate Commerce law.

Worcester, Mass., July 26.—There is considerable excitement here occasioned by a strange story printed in a Jacksonville, Fla. paper, involving the question of the free transportation of 150 pounds of extra baggage for passengers covering their baggage with registry and indemnity certificates issued by the Traders' Union. These roads, about April 1, refused to honor these certificates on the ground that it was prohibited by the Interstate Commerce law.

THE FLOODED DISTRICT.

THE DESTRUCTION MORE WIDESPREAD THAN AT FIRST SUPPOSED.
A Valley Trained into a White-Capped Lake—One Life Lost.

GRAT BARRINGTON, Mass., July 26.—A careful inspection of the flooded district shows that the destruction has been more widespread than has been reported, while it is believed that some of your readers may be looking for just such a place to spend a few weeks.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN.
The Rebel Flingations Upon the Campaign.

TOLEDO, O., July 26.—According to the present programme Senator Sherman will be the permanent chairman of the Republican Convention here.

CHICAGO, July 26.—In the boilers trial in Judge Jamison's court this morning, James Kee, one of a firm of dealers in Indiana, was called to the stand.

IT DOES PROHIBIT.

THE RESULT OF TWELVE MONTHS PROHIBITION IN ALABAMA.
The Prohibition of the "Constitution" and Dr. J. H. Smith.

The following article is from a distinguished divine, Dr. J. H. Smith, who is well known in Charlotte, and, in fact, all through the States of North and South Carolina—having been married in Cabarrus county, and having once preached in Lancaster, S. C., before he came to Atlanta.

MASSA, KENTUCKY.—The city of Atlanta, claiming over 60,000 inhabitants, is located in Fulton county, Ga. In November, 1885, a Prohibition convention was held in this county, and out of perhaps 7,500 votes cast, Prohibition received a majority of only 235.
