BY CHARLOTTE CHRONICLE PUP. CO. Every Morning Except Monday.

THE CASH PRICE OF THE CHRONICLE IS $1.50 PER YEAR; $1.00 FOR 3 MONTHS.

TELEPHONE NO. 75. OR WRITE TO THE CHRONICLE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

July 12, 1891.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE REPORT.

The News yesterday published a statement that a paragraph published in THE CHRONICLE's Winston correspondence had created a considerable stir in business circles here. It goes on to say: "One merchant said to a News reporter: 'This is an outrage. There has been no 'crash.' What could have inspired such a hurtful allusion to our business interest, it is hard to tell. It should never have appeared in print.'"

Another business man said: "Why is it that such misstatements get into public print?" That is a question we want answered and we want the public to hear the answer. There is not now and never has been the slightest probability of a financial crash here. The only intimation there ever has been of such a thing was given by a sensational story in the News of the 7th inst. It was not substantiated by facts, and existed only in the mind of the writer. In addition to this the account which appeared in the News was telegraphed to the State Chronicle verbatim et literatim under the flaming caption of "A Great Financial Crash in Charlotte's Municipal Affairs." In this way the myth was given much more publicity than it could ever have gotten through the medium of the News.

This slander has caused the great stir here and elsewhere, and THE CHRONICLE has been in no way connected with its circulation.

We are responsible for every word we have uttered on this or any other subject, but we object to having such a scurrilous piece of business laid to our charge, either directly or by implication, and while we regret the necessity, we feel compelled to characterize the action of the News as a cowardly attempt to shift the responsibility of its own slanderous statement to an innocent party. We have files of the papers to corroborate our statements and we are prepared to substantiate every word uttered.

GOV. HOLT AND THE PLAID TRUST.

A number of our State contemporaries are concerned about a certain plaid concern and Gov. Holt's membership thereof. He is charged with belonging to a plaid trust and he is defended by the statement that it is not a plaid trust that he is a member of. Col. Walter L. Steele, one of the strongest free traders in the State, is also a member of the same concern, and he says that it is not true.

Gov. Holt is very probably a protectionist at heart. A gentleman told THE CHRONICLE some days ago that one of the best protection speeches that he had ever heard from a North Carolinian, was made by Governor Holt at Mount Holly a year or so ago. Notwithstanding such charges, he is making one of the most acceptable Governors the State has ever had. He is disappointing his enemies and surprising his friends. But he must nurse his heart of the sin of protection if he is to continue to prosper in North Carolina politics.

HILL'S AND CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

A representative of the St. Louis Republic was in attendance upon Tammany Hall's recent celebration, and reports as the most significant incident of the occasion the relative enthusiasm inspired by the reading of the letters of regret sent by Mr. Cleveland and Gov. Hill. He writes that the reading of Mr. Cleveland's letter was followed by a spontaneous burst of applause which lasted four minutes. He says, "his words were thrown in the air, umbrellas were opened and waved, and the lungs, feet and hands of the crowd were excited in an unusual way." Immediately following this Gov. Hill's letter was read, and, in spite of the attempt of the Tammany machine on the platform to stimulate enthusiasm "the cheering was all over in less than a minute, and it lacked both the volume and the spontaneity with which the mention of Mr. Cleveland's name was greeted."—Richmond Times.

The St. Louis Republic is a Cleveland paper and the New York Sun is a malignant anti-Cleveland paper. Next morning the Sun declared that at the occurrence of people on this Tammany occasion manifested much more enthusiasm at the mention of Hill's name than that of Cleveland's.

With the masses of the people Cleveland is the most popular Democrat in the Union. But it is nearly a year until the party nominates a candidate for the Presidency. Within that time Congress meets, the elections in Ohio and Iowa take place, Cleveland may write more letters, and Hill may accidentally spill what sort of a Democrat he is. The wind may blow from the west or south or the millennium may possibly arrive.

THERE WAS NO DECLARATION.

An Ohio man writes to the Charlotte Chronicle to know if the people of Mecklenburg have erected a monument to commemorate the Revolution on May 21st. He does not seem to know of the preceding Declaration of the 20th May, 1775. The patriots to a monument from a Northern man living in Mecklenburg and he is said to have been a North Carolinian when he had no other way to get to be a

ROWAN FARMERS

Elect Officers for the Year—A Reformed Savage.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.] RALEIGH, July 11.—The Rowan county farmers' alliance met yesterday on the fair grounds. Sixty-seven delegates and thirty-five alternates, representing the forty-one sub-ordinate alliances in the county were present. Jesse W. Miller was re-elected president. Most of the other expiring officers were also re-elected. It was intended continuing the session today, but in consideration of the present busy season with the farmers a resolution was offered postponing the meeting two weeks. The session will complete its work on Saturday the 25th of this month. In the mean time the matter of a business agency will receive particular attention, in order to accomplish the greatest good.

The farmers are very much interested in their work. The spirit of resentment reported in some sections does not show itself here. Very little is being said of the third party or sub-treasury. Indications are that they will not be supported very greatly by the alliance people here, notwithstanding it is thought a big effort will be made to push the matter during the fall and winter.

Some of the colored folks here lay the present cold weather to the ice factory which is now nearing completion. The Baptist church is now neatly painted and furnished. Regular service will be held tomorrow by Rev. Jones, who has been absent several weeks.

Binder Kinder, the cannibal missionary, lectured last night in the Lutheran church to a full house. He is a great curiosity. His speech was delivered in broken English with many comic gestures, while at times he threw a word of pathos into his words. He gave a graphic account of his native country and seemed to dwell with special delight upon the days when he danced around the boiling children filled with human flesh. But he greatly laments the sad depravity of his people and calls upon the civilized world to help him in teaching them differently. The exercises were highly entertaining throughout. A purse aggregating nearly fifty dollars was realized from the entertainment.

A Startling Discovery

is often made by a man as to his physical condition, when suddenly some disease that is lurking in his system shows itself and prostrates him upon a bed of sickness. This is particularly the case with malarial poison, which often lies dormant until a sudden change of climate forces it to the surface. If, therefore, you contemplate a visit to the

or any change to a high altitude, you should first go to Cleveland Springs, the waters of which effectually eradicate all malaria from the system and by its wonderful tonic effects builds up the physical condition so rapidly that a few days' stay revives the energies to such a degree, that a person feels renewed and prepared for the full enjoyment of a trip to the "Land of the Sky." Those also who suffer from any disease that causes them to feel that their Nervous System is or giving away will find that these waters possess properties that will reinvigorate and build them up. In fact for any of the many diseases that afflict suffering humanity they have proven by thorough test to be a panacea, and as such are recommended by the leading physicians of North Carolina. For Analysis, Testimonials, &c., Address J. B. WILKINSON, Proprietor Cleveland Springs, April 10—3mcs Shelby, N. C.

HAL AYER TURNS PROPHECY.

He is Mistaken About North Carolina Politics.

Mrs. C. W. Harris's Letter in Landmark.] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9.—The fourth of July makes legitimate Washington news scarce. Even Col. Polk is out of town, together with the President and several cabinet officers. But Hal W. Ayer, Esq., a clever young newspaper man from North Carolina, is here as Col. Polk's secretary. That youthful prophet bet me the finest pair of kid gloves in Washington against a saucer of ice cream that the "Third party" will have 100,000 votes in North Carolina and 120,000 in Georgia. If I visit any of my kinfolks around your way in 1893 I expect to bring in my trunk a pair of gloves that will be too fine for poor folks to wear on the train. Mr. Ayer will have an article in a forthcoming issue of the Forum for which he will receive $100. He is a gifted, industrious young fellow, wields a facile pen, and he will find that this will pay him better than prophesying party treason as regards North Carolina and Georgia farmers, or booming our "distinguished fellow citizen." Col. Polk, for the Presidency. However, I told Mr. Ayer if Col. Polk ever got inside the White House in the capacity of Chief Executive, he ought to be made private secretary. He scouted the idea and thought the position of cabinet officer would suit him better. I told him he would be old enough to carry around the biggest portfolio in the gift of the President when the "Third party" disrupted the Democracy of Georgia or North Carolina. And I believe he will.

DAKOTA ALLIANCE.

They Will Probably Join the Independent Party.

HURON, S. D., July 11.—The Alliance Independent conference closed yesterday. The question of re-organization of an independent party of the State to conform with the Cincinnati platform was discussed and referred to the Independent Central Committee for a settlement, which practically means that the Cincinnati platform will be adopted by the Independentists here. The organization of the Knights' Alliance to work with the Knights of Labor is recommended and also patronizing of newspapers that are friendly to the reform movement and the holding of county bar vest festivals in the State this Fall.

IF YOU THOUGHT there was a town in Western North Carolina that was to increase its population in 3 years from 200 to 500 per cent, IF YOU BELIEVED that this town was to be developed by capitalists as a health resort and as an industrial city, and that it had two Railroads—two more projected—a Splendid Back Country—surrounded by fertile farms—vast hardwood forests—abundant mineral— AND IF YOU KNEW that this place was to have its undoubted advantages of climate and its undeveloped resources of timber and mineral wealth thoroughly and widely advanced WOULD'N'T YOU INVEST a little money there in Real Estate? And wouldn't you think your investment would be a paying one.
