

Supply Driver Receives 30-Day Active Sentence

A Supply driver was given a 30-day active sentence and three suspended sentences in Brunswick County District Criminal Court last week after pleading guilty to several traffic violations.

Stefane Vernard Pierce, 23, of Route 2, Supply, was charged by State Trooper B.D. Barnhardt on Nov. 24, 1984 with DWI, two counts of attempting to elude arrest, carrying a concealed weapon, simple possession of marijuana, speeding 102 mph in a 55 mph zone, driving without an operator's license and assault with a deadly weapon.

In court last Monday, Pierce pleaded guilty to all charges except for one count of eluding arrest and assault with a deadly weapon, which were voluntarily dismissed. The speeding violation was also reduced to 81 mph in a 55 mph zone.

According to Barnhardt's arrest report, Pierce was traveling on N.C. 130 near Mill Branch Road in Ash when he was stopped for going 103 mph. After stopping the 1975 white Chevrolet Monza, Pierce allegedly assaulted Barnhardt by driving the car "towards him while he was attempting to get out of his patrol car," Barnhardt's report stated.

Judge Jerry A. Jolly sentenced Pierce to six months in prison for the DWI charge, suspended for two years and placed him on two years probation. He was also ordered to serve an additional 30-day active sentence to be served at the Brunswick County Jail within six months.

Pierce was ordered to perform 72 hours community service within 90 days and pay $90, fined $250 plus court cost, attend Southeastern Mental Health classes for $50, submit to tests, and not have in his possession controlled substances.

Judge Jolly also sentenced Pierce to five days in jail, suspended for five days, and fined $100 plus court costs for carrying a concealed weapon and possession of marijuana. For speeding and driving without a license, Pierce received a 30 day sentence in jail, suspended for two years and fined $25 plus court costs.
