Miss Trojani 1984-85 Crowned

Melanie Lewis of Shallotte was selected from among 12 senior girls as the 1984-85 Miss Trojani Friday night at West Brunswick High School.

The annual pageant is sponsored by the yearbook staff as a fundraising event.

Miss Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lewis of Shallotte. She plans a pre-pharmacy major at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

She was crowned Friday by Tamala Grissett, Miss Trojani 1983-84.

Other winners included Karen Miller, first runner-up; Felicia Galloway, second runner-up; and Jackie High, Miss Congeniality.

The girls competed in evening gown, streetwear and costumes illustrating a musical theme.

Miss Lewis wore a town suit with hat in streetwear competition and selected a flapper's outfit to illustrate her song, "Five Foot Two, Eyes of Blue."

Other contestants and their costume songs were as follows: Wendy Stout, "Baby Face;" Michelle King, "She Works Hard for the Money;" Jackie High, "Teddy Bear;" Marquetta Gore, "Mr. Telephone Man;" Dwanna Varnam, "Money Changes Everything;" Robin Swink, "Let Me Be Your Angel;" Karen Miller, "Grizabella, the Glamour Cat;" DeVane White, "Chapel of Love;" Ginger Freeman, "Calendar Girl;" Shelley Ludlum, "Lucky Star;" and Felicia Galloway, "99 Red Balloons."

Jennifer Cheers and Wayne Long are co-editors of the Trojani; Priscilla Gupton is the yearbook faculty sponsor.

MISS TROJANI contestants devised costumes that carried out a "Music, Music, Music" theme. From the left are Felicia Galloway, Shelley Ludlum, Ginger Freeman, Melanie Lewis, DeVane White and Karen Miller.
