Lewis-Coston Vows Spoken At Ogden

Ogden Advent Christian Church was the setting for the Saturday, Jan. 12, marriage of Debra Wayne Lewis and Joseph Marion Coston.

Rev. Harold R. Crocker officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lewis of Leland. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Coston of Castle Hayne.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a white gown of satin with Nottingham, Chantilly and Venice laces.

It featured a sabrina neckline, fitted bodice accented with lace, pearls and sequins and elbow-length puffed sleeves with lace cuffs and floral trim.

Her full satin skirt fell from a natural waistline to create a cathedral length petal train trimmed in Chantilly lace and flower and lace rosettes.

She wore a cathedral length veil of silk illusion trimmed in satin and attached to a band of silk flowers. She carried an orchid bouquet attached to her mother's Bible.

Miss Mary Wallace of Wilmington attended the bride as maid of honor and was a soloist during the ceremony.

Mrs. Emily Mabry of Wilmington, Ms. Robin Presnell of Wrightsville Beach, Mrs. Vicki Sylvester of New Bern and Miss Rosie Frisby of Asheville also attended the bride.

The bride attendants wore full length dresses of royal blue taffeta created by Mrs. Allene Hansen, aunt of the bride. Each gown featured a sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves and lace cuffs.

The full-length skirt was edged with a ruffled flounce and featured a fake bustle and lace petticoat.

Miss Kristy King and Miss Lori Hassler of Wilmington served as acolytes. They wore identical full-length dresses of fuschia with puff sleeves and long tie belts.

Andrew Coston served as his son's best man. Ushers were Bill Lewis of Leland, brother of the bride; Joel Coston and James Coston of Castle Hayne, brothers of the groom; and James Eason of Wilmington.

Wedding music was provided by Rick Crocker, pianist, and Ken House, guitarist, both of Wilmington. Duets were sung by Paul Smith of Burlington and Miss Suzanne King of Wilmington and Ken House and Miss Mary Wallace.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. After a honeymoon in Florida, the couple will reside in Wilmington.

Mrs. Coston is employed by New Hanover Memorial Hospital as a registered nurse while the groom is employed in management at a local Hill's/Parkers Food Store.

Parties
The bride-elect was given several showers prior to the wedding.

Also, a rehearsal party given by the groom's parents was held Friday evening for members of the wedding party.

How Do I Love Thee...

Count the ways this Valentine's Day with fresh flowers, balloons and stuffed animals from Shallotte Florist. Love Thee with roses, with daisies, with carnations, and with flowering plants. For all the loves of your life—count the ways to show them you care—with something beautiful from the people who care. Shallotte Florist.

Celebration of Valentine's Day has its origin from an Ancient Roman festival of love for the young people. It was dedicated to a Christian Saint martyred in mid February. As a parting gesture before his death, Saint Valentine sent to his love, the blind daughter of his jailer, a bouquet of flowers and a farewell note signed "From your Valentine." Thus, Saint Valentine has come to represent love to millions of people around the world on the traditional Valentine's Day, February 14.
