

Warren-Owens Vows Exchanged

Sherri Lynn Warren of Myrtle Beach, S.C., and David Craig Owens of Sunset Beach were married Sunday, Feb. 24, in a 4 p.m. ceremony at Lakeside Baptist Church at North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Rev. Jim Mezick officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Wedding music included "Sea of Love" and "You're My Inspiration."

The sanctuary was decorated with greenery and candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde James Warren of Moncks Corner, S.C. The groom is the son of Mrs. Lois Hewett Owens of Sunset Beach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tea-length dress of candlelight lace over silk taffeta with filled bodice and dropped front waistline. It featured a sweetheart neckline with lace overlay extending into a high neckline with wedding band collar.

Her petite brim hat was accented with ruffled laces and silk flowers and a blusher of Russian veiling. The attached fingertip veil was of sheer bridal illusion. A hand-held bouquet completed her attire.

Candy Dayvault of Longs, S.C., sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. Becky Owens of Sunset Beach, also a sister of the groom, was maid of honor.

Both wore tea-length dresses of deep wine chiffon over taffeta and matching lace gloves. The dresses featured bodices with sweetheart necklines with an overlay of chiffon, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirts. They carried bouquets of grey, wine and off-white silk flowers. Owens chose Dale Bennett of Calabash as his best man. Kevin Warren of Monck's Corner, brother of the bride, ushered.

Mrs. Warren, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of peacock blue silk crepe with black accessories. Mrs. Owens, mother of the groom, wore a street-length dress of red silk crepe with red accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception honoring the couple was held at the Mariner's Cove Club House, Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The couple will reside at Ocean Isle Beach.

The new Mrs. Owens is a graduate of Berkeley High School in Monck's Corner, S.C., and the Joyland Beauty School at Myrtle Beach, S.C. The groom is a graduate of West Brunswick High School.

ABWA Seeks Local Members

A meeting to allow area working women to "get acquainted" with the American Business Women's Association will be held Sunday, March 3, at 3 p.m. in the recreation room of Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte.

The meeting is the step in efforts to organize an ABWA chapter in the area, indicated project co-chairman Julie Barefoot of the Marbella ABWA in Wilmington. Working with her is Dora Holder of the Scotch Bonnet Chapter, also of Wilmington.

Ms. Barefoot said the nearest existing chapters are located in Wilmington, Southport and North Myrtle Beach, S.C. She said the new club could draw members from the Supply-Holden Beach area to the Calabash and Ash communities.

ABWA was organized in 1949 and has more than 2,100 chapters and 112,000 members. The organization is dedicated to the professional, educational, cultural and social advancement of women in the businesses and professions.

Chapters usually hold monthly dinner meetings that feature a guest speaker from the business community and a talk by a member relating to her work or profession, with an annual "Boss's Night." ABWA also sponsors scholarships at the local and national level.

Interested business and professional women are invited to attend the get-acquainted meeting, said Ms. Barefoot.

To Wed April 20
