

Couple Say Vows In Goldsboro

Andria Kate White of Dudley and Max Rich Jr. of Goldsboro were married 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 9, in a candlelight ceremony at Love Memorial Baptist Church.

The Rev. Bobbie Belcher officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which included the lighting of the unity candle.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Betty Jackson, organist; Miss Betty Carole Jackson, pianist; and Miss Scottie Gainey and Mr. and Mrs. Bill White, vocalists.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ann White of Dudley and the late Rev. John W. White. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. White of Ash and Mrs. Erma Pigott of Shallotte. Mr. and Mrs. Max Rich Sr. of Goldsboro are the parents of the groom.

Escorted by her brother and given in marriage by her mother, the bride wore a formal gown of white taffeta. Medallions of beaded lace accented the elongated, fitted bodice, which featured a sweetheart neckline with a V-shaped ruffle edged in lace. The single A-line skirt extended into a chapel train ending with a ruffle of lace.

Her full-length veil of bridal illusion, bordered with lace, was attached to a cap of lace enhanced with pearls. She carried her mother's wedding Bible topped with a cascade of red and white roses, baby's breath and greenery accented with petite lace tied in love knots.

Miss Meredith White of Dudley was her sister's maid of honor. Also attending the bride were Mrs. Glenda White of Wilmington, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Jeannie Willoughby and Mrs. Debbie Butcher of Goldsboro, sisters of the groom.

Flower girl was Janeen Butcher, niece of the groom. Chuck King, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Milton Butcher of Goldsboro, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Stan White of Dudley and Bill White of Wilmington, brothers of the bride, and Jim Willoughby of Goldsboro, brother-in-law of the groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the newlyweds presented roses to their mothers.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Lou Ellen White of Supply, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Portia Brown, longtime friend of the bride, presided at the guest register. Programs were distributed by Gerry Wilson, friend of the groom.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Dover, Del., where the groom is stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Edna Moore, friend of the bride, coordinated the event.

Mrs. Peggy Strickland of Wilmington served the four-tiered cake. Punch was served by Miss Allison Best of Grantham and Mrs. Gretchen Broom of Satellite Beach, Fla. Other hostesses were Mrs. Ruby Pate, Mrs. Kay Fortner, Mrs. Erlene Bryan and Mrs. Ida Claypool. Mrs. Jean Cox and Mrs. Doris Jernigan assisted with decorations.

Two friends of the bride, Miss Faye Keen of Grantham and Mrs. Portia Brown of Goldsboro, distributed rice bags.

Following a Feb. 8 rehearsal, the

MRS. MAX RICH JR.
...the former Andria Kate White

Springs Homemakers Met

Two brief programs and a cookie exchange highlighted the Feb. 19 meeting of the Boiling Spring Lakes Homemakers Club.

Thelma Dunn spoke briefly on "How to Have a Better Bazaar" and Edith Ogden gave a program on "Antique Handwork."

Ed Stanley talked briefly about plans to reorganize a chapter of the American Red Cross in Brunswick County.

Members presented Mary Richardson the book, "Today Is Mine," in recognition of her selection as Woman of the Year by the club.

President Thelma Dunn called the meeting to order after the social period, which featured an exchange of homemade cookies by several members.

Margaret Domler gave the devotion, "One Set of Footprints." Mary Richardson gave the secretary's report and Thelma Dunn announced a March 4 cultural arts contest for county homemakers.

Other upcoming events include an area meeting at Bolivia in March and the Boiling Spring Lakes Fair March 16-17, for which club members are planning a bake sale.

The club welcomed Mary Bellows as a new member and closed with the collect for club women.

In attendance were Margaret Domler, Thelma Dunn, Eva Hall, Elizabeth Presley, Mary Richardson, Imogene Ross, Elizabeth Steil, Mary Bellows, Mabel Koehler and Edith Ogden.

Birthdays And Anniversaries

Thursday, Feb. 28
Jill E. Frink, Odessa Usher, J. Frank Williamson, Stanton Brown, Ryan Cooper, Jimmy C. Register, Phyllis Kuhnemann, Gary Galloway, Gene Winfree; Mr. and Mrs. David Moore.

Feb. 29
LaSalle Hankins, Jr.

Friday, March 1
Carolyn Smigiel, Mary Sandlin, Bonita Phelps, Sophie Russ, David Milligan, Meredith Arnold, John Truesdale II, Dwight Reeves; Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry White, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Parker.

Saturday, March 2
Talmadge Gregory, Roger Dale Meadows, Bunny Nolan.

Sunday, March 3
Charlie R. Gray, Steve Fowler, Elizabeth Kogalski; Mr. and Mrs. J.R. (Sarge) Brosius.

Monday, March 4
Debbie Sellers, Dorothy Stanley, Ed Redwine, Joel Gupton, Lena Mae Gurganus, Karen Moshoures.

Tuesday, March 5
Tripp Holden, Wray King, Margaret Somersett, Louise Ludlum, Gail Russ, Judy Danford, Berkley White, Kemp Wilson; Dolpha and Icelean Bellamy.

Wednesday, March 6
Becky Clemmons, Chrissy Hewett, Neda Carter, Martha Stanley, DeVane White, Bob Milligan, Karen Branch, Dana Danyelle Varian, Michelle Benton; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hamilton.

groom-elect's parents entertained the wedding party with a buffet dinner in their home, at which time the couple presented gifts to their attendants.

The groom-elect's mother, Mrs. Max Rich Sr., and sister, Mrs. Jeannie Willoughby, gave a Feb. 6 shower for the couple.

Other parties for the bride-elect included a floating shower given Feb. 2 by Miss Scottie Gainey and Miss Allison Best, a miscellaneous shower on Jan. 28 by Faith Sunday School Class at Love Memorial Church and a miscellaneous shower Jan. 11 at Calvary Baptist Church in Shallotte, with the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. Erma Pigott, as hostess.

Parties

A bridal breakfast honoring Miss White was given the morning of the wedding in the home of Mrs. Virginia Westbrook of Goldsboro. Hostesses were Mrs. Lynda Britt and Mrs. Jeanette Brown of Ash and Mrs. Lou Ellen White of Supply, aunts of the bride.

Long Bay Elects New Officers

Long Bay Garden Club members have elected Diane Baxley as their president for the coming year.

Elections were held at the club's February 21 meeting at the home of Jamie Ward in Shallotte.

Also elected were Frances Gravatt, first vice-president;

Frances Williams, second vice-president; Marilyn Dowless, secretary; and Carole Harris, treasurer.

The club will plant flowering plum trees at the West Brunswick Library on Tuesday, March 19, in celebration of Arbor Week. Also, further plans for landscaping at the library were discussed. Member Alice Robinson presented an interesting program on birds. She also gave out bluebird houses to members who had ordered them.

Vickie Jones, president, conducted the meeting. Frances Williams assisted the hostess with refreshments.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

West Instructors Attend Conference

Instructors Faye Bellamy and Virginia Winfree of West Brunswick High School recently attended the Atlantic Coast Business and Distributive Education conference held Feb. 22-23 at the Sheraton Inn in Greenville.

Sponsored annually by the Business Education and Administrative Services Department of the School of Technology, East Carolina University, the conference is designed to help improve instruction methods and increase the learning attained by business students.

"Strategies for Excellence" was the conference theme, with emphasis on the roles of electronic information systems and microcomputers.

On Duty In Sinai

Pfc. Steven A. Biszmaier, son of Barbara J. Biszmaier of Wilmington and Kenneth A. Biszmaier of Leland, is a member of the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg. An infantryman, he is participating in the multinational peacekeeping force and observers (MFO) as the primary U.S. military presence on the Sinai Peninsula, operating checkpoints and patrolling.

The independent MFO was established as a result of the 1979

Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty.

Marlowe Promoted

Timmy M. Marlowe, son of Carolyn H. Marlowe of Route 2, Supply, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

The 1980 West Brunswick High School graduate is a munitions systems specialist at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base near Goldsboro with the 4th Equipment Maintenance Squadron.

In 'Faces' Contest

Tracy Roycroft of Shallotte is a fourth place winner in the For Faces Only "Great Faces of Summer" contest sponsored by Cosmopolitan magazine in conjunction with a national cosmetics firm.

She received a tote bag and selection of cosmetics. Judging was based on a series of 8" by 10" photographs; Miss Roycroft's portfolio was prepared by Brunswick Studio.

Graduates

Pvt. Geraldine Stubbart graduated from basic training at Fort Jackson in Columbia, S.C., last week. She will now report to Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas for medical specialist training. She is the daughter of Will and Jo Ann Stubbart of Sunset Beach and a 1983 graduate of Freedom High School in Morganton.

Mrs. Harper Honored

For the second consecutive year, Mrs. Margaret Taylor Harper of Southport has been nominated as one of the state's outstanding women leaders.

She will be one of 41 nominees honored at a March 22 banquet in Raleigh at which five women will be presented the Distinguished Women of North Carolina Award by Gov. James G. Martin.

The event is sponsored by the N.C. Council on the Status of Women and is held in conjunction with Women's History Month in March.

Going Out of Business!

All Fabric 1/2 Price

Notions & Thread

20% OFF

a stitch in time

EVERYTHING WILL BE SOLD BY MAR. 8

Downtown Shallotte
across from Hardee's
754-4336

FITNESS FEVER

Catch It!

Join our aerobics & exercise class.
Classes start Mar. 2

Legion Hut
Hwy. 17, South, Shallotte

CLASS SCHEDULE:
Monday 7-8 PM
Wednesday 7:30-8:30 PM
Saturday 10-11 AM

FEE: $20 per month or $2 per class

INSTRUCTOR: DeLana Holden
Experienced in classical ballet, pointe, jazz, musical theater, tap, aerobics

FOR INFORMATION CALL
754-4695 or 754-9237
after 6 p.m.

Elán

"A Professional School For Modeling"

Categories Include:

- I. MODELS WORKSHOP —Professional and intensive instruction into the world of modeling.
—Ages 14-21
- II. PAGEANT GROOMING —Basic planning and intensive training for the competitive Miss.
- III. GROOMING & ETIQUETTE —Male and female.
—Ages 10-17
—Basic etiquette, grooming, as you grown & learn to shop smart for poise and social grace for the young adult.
- IV. LOOKING AND LIVING BEAUTIFUL —Workshop for career woman.
—Detailed instruction into wardrobe planning, make-up analysis and personal development.
—Ages 22 and over.

MS. ROSANE HARDEE will be your instructor. She has been a professional model for eight years exclusively with Neiman Marcus, including four years of European work for top designer YVES ST. LAURENTA and OSCAR DE LA RENTA. She will be taking applications for enrollment March 1 through March 15.

For more details and information call 754-4388!