

Wedding Plans Told

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Owens of Shallotte have announced the engagement of their daughter, Audrey, to Keith Gore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gore of Shallotte. The wedding will take place at Calvary Baptist Church Saturday, April 6, at 2 p.m. Local invitations will not be sent. All friends and relatives are invited to both the wedding and reception.

Shows Will Benefit Hospice

Two events in March will benefit Lower Cape Fear Hospice Inc., an organization whose trained volunteers work with patients who have a limited time to live and with their families.

Hospice services are provided without charge in Brunswick, Pender and New Hanover counties.

The Azalea Coast Corvettes, an organization of area Corvette owners, presents its 4th annual Corvette Show Saturday and Sunday, March 16-17, at Independence Mall.

Donations will be given to Hospice. Also, on March 23, a champagne brunch and fashion show will be held at Poplar Grove Plantation on U.S. 17 at Scotts Hill. Sponsored by Friends of Hospice, the show will feature fashions by Hilda Godwin's of Wilmington, with hair and make-up artistry by Holbrook's Salon. Advance tickets are available at $15 each, with all proceeds to Hospice.

Tickets and more information are available from local Hospice volunteers.

Ellis Baby Is Born Feb. 16

He weighed 10 pounds, 2 ounces and measured 21 1/4 inches at birth. He joins four sisters and brothers: Teddi, 18, Joey, 15, Jana, 11, and Bo, 3.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hewett of Shallotte and Mrs. Myrtle Ellis of Ozark, Ala.

Local Club Earns District Arts Awards

For the third consecutive year, the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club has received the Pat S. Mahl award in recognition of the numerous blue ribbons it won in the District II Arts Festival sponsored by area women's clubs.

The festival was held Saturday at Shallotte Middle School, with federation clubs in Southport, Shallotte, Wilmington, Wallace, Clinton, Carolina Beach and Newton Grove competing, said Robin Hobbs, club spokeswoman.

Student entries sponsored by the club earned 12 blue ribbons and three red ribbons, while the clubwomen received 12 ribbons, including five blue ones, for their entries.

Blue ribbon winners will represent the district in the N.C. Federation of Women's Clubs State Art Festival, which will be held March 28-29 in Winston-Salem.

Students earning blue ribbons were as follows: Keith White, in ceramics, wood crafts, paper crafts and paintings by 10th and 11th graders; DeWayne Varnam, in short story and paintings by 12th graders; Tom McMullen, in decorative painting;

June Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Waples of Shallotte have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judy Renee, to John Edward Miller, son of Major and Mrs. Dwayne E. Miller of Redstone Arsenal, Alabama. A June 9 wedding is planned at Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte.

Joseph Sapps, in fabric craft; Marion Gore, in performing arts (public speaking); Karen Hewett, sculpture by 12th graders; Dayna Ramsey, in poetry; and Elizabeth Simmons, literature (non-fiction).
