Abuse Topic Of Area Meeting

Local extension homemakers learned about abuse and neglect of the young and old at a March 19 area meeting at the county government center at Bolivia.

Guest speaker Mildred Bellamy of the Brunswick County Department of Social Services asked those present to help in notifying the proper agencies of suspected abuse. She also displayed a family of anatomically correct dolls and explained how they are used in court proceedings. Ms. Bellamy asked that suspected cases of abuse or neglect be reported to the social services department at 253-4391, during normal working hours and to the Brunswick County Sheriff's Department after hours and on weekends.

Nine members and a guest, Anna

Say, attended the meeting from the Supply Extension Homemakers Club.

The club held its business meeting at a local restaurant, announcing officers for 1985 and 1986 as follows: Clara Schuester, president; Gladys Holden, first vice president; Ethelyn Hawes, recording secretary and treasurer; Millie Evans, corresponding secretary.

Mildred Hawes, Gladys Geller, Evelyn Gunnersen and Gladys Holden will serve on the telephone committee.

Program of work chairmen are as follows: Aileen Miles, citizenship and community outreach; Evelyn Gunnersen and Liz Busby, cultural arts, textiles and clothing; Ethelyn Hawes, family resource management; Millie Evans, health, foods and nutrition; Pat Nash and Gladys Holden, public relations.

A crocheted lap robe to be featured in a July 4 fundraising event was displayed and tickets distributed for sale at $1 each. Proceeds of the project will go to the Supply Volunteer Fire Department and the Calabash Volunteer Rescue Squad.

A club crafts workshop will be held 10 a.m. April 3 at the home of Evelyn Gunnersen to make Easter favors for Brunswick Hospital and crafts for the N.C. Fourth of July Festival.

The next regular club meeting will be April 16 at 10 a.m. in the meeting room at Brunswick Electric Membership Corp. Members are to bring items for a flea market to be planned at the meeting.
