Five County Students Graduate From NCSU

Five Brunswick County students received degrees from N.C. State University in Raleigh during commencement exercises held May 11.

Adrian D. Waddell, whose parents are J. McKenney and W. Waddell of Route 3, Leland, earned a master's degree in guidance and personnel services. Craig H. Cowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Cowan of Olde Towne community, received a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering.

Other graduates receiving bachelor's degrees are Anita A. Hewett, mechanical engineering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hewett of Route 1, Shallotte; and Bruce I. Nicholson, chemical engineering, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Nicholson of Southport.

Longwood, who is also her 4-H leader, said Pearl Stanley, county home economics extension agent. Garments she had sewn were critiqued on construction, fit and appearance, and her poise and clothing record book were evaluated. She also participated in several clothing-related classes such as modeling, stain removal and sewing tools.

To Attend Campbell

West Brunswick High School senior Mavis Virginia (Ginger) Freeman of Route 6, Shallotte, has been accepted to Campbell University at Buies Creek.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Freeman.

Completes Basic

Army Reserve Private Roy K. Lague has completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

Lague's wife, Dorothy, is the daughter of John B. Simmons of Southport.

Gets Dealer Award

Shallotte Marine Supplies has received Evinrude's "Outstanding Dealer" award for the 1985 model year.

Judging is based on the dealer's overall proficiency in the marketing and servicing of Evinrude products.

Campbell Graduates Two

Two Brunswick County students are among the spring 1985 graduates of Campbell University at Buies Creek.

On May 6, Franklin D. Hooks of Ash received his master's of education degree. Landon Mark Coleman, also of Ash, received a bachelor of science degree and Mack R. Aman of Yaupon Beach received an associate of arts degree.

Earns Scholarship

North Brunswick High School graduate Jeff Sholar recently received the Chuck Lewis Memorial football scholarship at Lees-McRae College at Banner Elk.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Durand H. Sholar of Leland.

Young Inducted

Tina Elizabeth Young of Winnabow was recently inducted into the Alpha Chi National Honor Society at Limestone College, Gaffney, S.C.

A senior majoring in psychology and fashion merchandising, Miss Young was a marshal at spring commencement. She also is a member of Kappa Delta Kappa, a social sorority, and serves on the yearbook staff.

Completes Course

Army National Guard Second Lt. Michael K. Hewett of Shallotte graduated May 3 from the Infantry Officers Basic Course.

He graduated near the top of a class of 200 and fourth in a platoon of 40, attaining the commander's list. He is airborne qualified.

Hewett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Hewett Jr. of Al Street, Shallotte. He and his wife Martha also live in Shallotte.

He is a 1984 graduate of UNC-Wilmington, where he earned a B.S. in computer science. He has been in the National Guard for three years and is presently an anti-tank platoon leader with the Shallotte company of the 120th Infantry.

Contest Winners

Kathy Allen (center front) will represent Leland Middle School in Friday's State Proficiency Event in Raleigh. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen and winner of first place in the Personal Service category March 8 on the district level. Other winners from Leland Middle School are, above, Mickey Thompson, 2nd, manufacturing cluster; Matthew Tripp, 3rd, health cluster; Keith Allen, 3rd, environmental cluster; Tisha Jones, 3rd, consumer and homemaking cluster; and Wendy Brew, 3rd, individual talent.

GOP Women Elect Officers

The Brunswick County Republican Women's Club hopes to attract younger women into its fold with the election of a 24-year-old as president of the group.

President Karen Babson Savage of Winnabow said she feels she can attract "many of Brunswick County's young women to the club."

She also hopes to keep the club active in the off-election year.

Other officers elected recently were Cathy Watkins of Leland, vice president; and Brenda Rabon of Winnabow, secretary-treasurer.

The club voted to affiliate with the National Federation of Republican Women. Members meet next on June 13 at 7:30 p.m. at Brunswick County Republican Party Headquarters at Bolivia.

Blood Drive Nets 124 Units

An April 23 American Red Cross blood drive at West Brunswick High School netted 124 units of blood that has been designated for Rebecca Russ of Shallotte.

Rebecca, the five-year-old daughter of W.T. (Rusty) and Polly Russ of Shallotte, is a leukemia patient at N.C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill. Her illness was diagnosed last month.

WBHS health occupations students and instructor Jeanette Mintz coordinated the bloodmobile visit to the school gym. Members of the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club, the Shallotte Volunteer Rescue Squad and Coastline Volunteer Rescue Squad also aided in the blood drive, Ms. Mintz said.

Earns Pharmacy Degree

Sibyl Hewett of Route 2, Supply, was graduated from the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy Sunday, May 12, in ceremonies at Chapel Hill.

The daughter of Burness and Loretta Hewett, she will be employed by Revco Pharmacy in Southport.

At UNC-CH, she was a member of Kappa Epsilon honorary and the student pharmaceutical association.

Earns Early Promotion

Richard V. Davis has been specially identified for early promotion to senior airman in the U.S. Air Force.

He was awarded the new rating ahead of other airmen by a "below-the-zone" promotion board that considered job performance, military knowledge, bearing and self-improvement efforts.

Davis is the son of Janice W. Tingen and stepson of Milton C. Tingen of Route 1, Winnabow. A 1983 graduate of South Brunswick High School, he is an aircraft maintenance crew chief at Torrejon Air Base, Spain, with the 401st Tactical Fighter Wing.

Recognized

Stella Babson of Ash, a home health nurse, has been named employee of the month for May by Comprehensive Home Health Care.

Attended 4-H Camp

Chris Stevenson, winner of the Brunswick County 4-H Fashion Revue, recently attended a state 4-H Clothing Camp held May 3-5 at Betsy Jeff-Penn 4-H Camp at Reidsville.

She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Patricia Stevenson of
