Twelve Girls To Compete For Miss Teen Brunswick Title

Twelve young women compete Saturday, May 25, at Shallotte Middle School for the title of Miss Teen Brunswick County 1985.

The pageant begins at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $3.50 at the door. Pageant Director Marilyn Reaves announced this week.

Now in its sixth year, the pageant is sponsored by the Shallotte Jaycees.

Natalynn Shipp of Wilmington, the reigning Miss N.C. Oyster Festival Queen, will serve as mistress of ceremonies. This year's event follows the theme, "Jungle Love." A variety of special entertainment is planned in addition to the competition itself.

The contestants, ages 13 to 16, will be judged in private interview, sportswear, talent and evening gown.

Competing for the 1985 title are these girls: •Stacie Cheers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cheers of Bolivia, will sing and dance; •Jessica Babson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Babson of Supply, will play the piano; •Kristi Malonee, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chris Moshoures of Sunset Beach, will sing.

•Sara Hardee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hardee of Shallotte, will dance.

•Angela Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Crawford of Ocean Isle Beach, will sing.

•Tanya Hewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hewett of Shallotte, will sing.

•Rhonda Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rifton Evans of Ash, will sing also.

•Robyn Blakely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Blakely of Long Beach, will tap dance.

•Briton Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Campbell of Southport, will perform a monologue.

•Monica Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Richardson of Leland, will sing.

•Angie Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Newman of Leland, will sing.

•Karen Pittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Lewis of Shallotte, will sing and dance.

1984 Miss Teen Brunswick County Chandee Varnam will crown her successor. The daughter of Nicky and Jackie Varnam of Supply, the West Brunswick High School junior is active in academic and extracurricular activities. A nine-year student of dance and member of the Jazz-mattaz Dance Company, she hopes to pursue a career in dance. She recently completed Grade II in classical ballet technique presented by the Cecchetti Council of America.
