

Fullwood, Brown Exchange Vows

Wendolyn Joyce Fullwood and Vincent Brown were married Saturday, April 20, at 3 p.m. at Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Supply.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fullwood of Supply. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Atlanta, Ga.

Rev. Freeman Gause and Rev. Moses C. Herring performed the double-ring ceremony. Music was provided by Mrs. Utha M. Hewett, Jackie Fullwood and George Latamore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of organza over taffeta embellished with Alencon lace and seed pearls. It featured a Victorian neckline and leg o' mutton sleeves.

Her chapel-length train accented with seed pearls and appliques of Alencon lace ended in a deep border of matching lace. Her veil of sheer netting with a rolled edge fell from a v-shaped headpiece of Alencon lace fashioned with a spray of seed pearls on top and a puff of pearl-accented netting at the rear.

She carried a cascade of white orchids.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Della Rowe of Atlanta, Ga. Also attending the bride were Tora Herring, Vivian Jordan, Rosalind Gore, Tonya Gordon, Rita L. Hargrove and Pricilla Herring. Alene Fullwood was the junior bridesmaid and Penny Hill, Lakela Hewett, April Nichols and Jennifer Fullwood were flower girls.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns of coral satin and carried European bouquets of spring flowers.

The groom's father served as his best man. Groomsmen were Bryon Barnes, Martel Bryant, Atlee Fullwood, Randy Gore and Andre Herring. Mathias Herring ushered.

The bride's mother wore a hot pink dress by Peerless of Boston, with a scalloped edge pink hat accented with pink and white carnations, and matching shoes and gloves. She also wore a full set of pink antique-style jewelry.

The groom's mother wore a gray dress selected from a Dianne Carroll collection, an oval hat accented with a feather, matching shoes and purse and gold jewelry.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents gave a reception in the church hall.

Following a honeymoon at Myrtle Beach, S.C., the couple is residing in Decatur, Ga.

The bride is a graduate of West Brunswick High School.

To Wed June 22

Lt. Col. and Mrs. James W. Varnum of Myrtle Beach, S.C., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Ann, to Richard Dale Gore of Tabor City. Their wedding is planned June 22 at 7 p.m. at Tabor City Baptist Church. Miss Varnum is the granddaughter of Cleveland and Louise Gore of Charlotte, Ada L. Varnum of Shallotte and Talmadge Varnum of Supply.

AARP To Have Talent Show

A pot luck supper and talent show will highlight the June 6 meeting of the Calabash Chapter 3640 of the American Association of Retired Persons, announced public relations director Percy Bray.

The meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Calabash Volunteer Fire Department. Members should bring a covered dish meal to the meeting while tea, coffee and eating utensils will be provided.

Daisy Mae Raynor, program chairperson, has coordinated an array of talent promising to be an evening of fun for all.

The Calabash AARP chapter will have a summer recess during July and August with the next meeting scheduled for Sept. 5.

Homemakers

Hear Drug Program

Members of the Boiling Spring Lakes Extension Homemakers Club heard a program on substance abuse presented by Eva Hall and Thelma Dunn.

Edith Ogden reported on the international adopt-a-student program.

Also, five club members helped with the Brunswick County Special Olympics program this year.

Members will meet with extension home economist Mary Russ at their June meeting. Also, club members are to meet June 3 at Mabel Koehlers' home at Boiling Spring Lakes for a shell craft workshop.

Attending the May 21 meeting at the Boiling Spring Lakes VFW Post were members Margaret Domler, Thelma Dunn, Eva Hall, Mabel Koehler, Edith Ogden, Mary Richardson, Regma Taylor and Helen Wheelon and guests Martha Bullard, Agnes Knox and Bill Koehler.

The program included recitation of the pledge of allegiance and the club collect and a social hour.

Burrises

Have Son

A son, Steven Dale Burris, was born May 15 at 1:25 p.m. in Columbus County Hospital in Whiteville to Ricky Dale and Jennifer Burris of Shallotte.

He weighed seven pounds, 10 ounces and 20 1/2 inches in length.

His maternal grandparents are Hulan and Anna Royals of Supply. James and Hattie Brown of Shallotte are the paternal grandparents.

Seniors Made 'Warm Fuzzies'

"Warm fuzzies" are the latest creation of the 21 Town Creek Senior Citizens club members who met May 16 for their monthly craft session at the park.

On June 20 participants are asked to bring a decorative jar to create sand art under the instruction of Doreen Vereen of the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department, said group spokeswoman Mary Richardson. The meeting begins at 1 p.m. and is part of a busy spring season for the group.

At the upcoming general meeting on June 6, a physician from Brunswick Hospital will discuss heart ailments, while on June 12, Dr. Barry Stokes of N.C. State University will present a seminar on estate planning from 10:30 a.m. until noon.

On May 18, six people from the group participated in a sightseeing trip to Charleston, S.C. They were Helen Wheelon, Jack and Edith Ogden, Letha Rabon, Ruby Melton and Mary Richardson.

The senior citizens group meets at the Town Creek Township Park building on U.S. 17 at Winnabow. Residents of the township age 50 and older are eligible to join. More information is available by calling Mary Richardson at 845-2862.

Elks' Veterans Group Active

Calabash Lodge No. 2679 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks recently delivered clothing, books and magazines to patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Fayetteville, reports public relations chairman Jack Ziefel.

Delivering the items during a May 16 visit were Schuyler Bramley, veterans committee chairman; Leon Noorigian, the chapter's exalted ruler; and Cliff Casey, member.

"The staff was very grateful," the officers reported upon their return.

They also announced plans for another trip, on July 30, to deliver prizes for a bingo or game night at the hospital, one in which "all the players win," Ziefel said. The group also hopes to present the hospital with a television set next year, as it did in 1984.

Lodge No. 2679, with a membership of more than 250, has outgrown its old clubhouse and has purchased the Dixie Restaurant. The dining room remains open to the public evenings as a fundraising project of the club, and serves a varied menu.

Elks Ladies

Meet June 5

The Ladies Auxiliary of Calabash Lodge 2679, BPOE, has changed its meeting day from the second Wednesday of each month to the first Wednesday.

Following the next meeting, on June 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Calabash, a social hour is planned with refreshments and games.

Public relations officer Norma Nordbruch asked members to bring their choice of cards or games.

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks (BPOE) is a national charitable and patriotic social fraternity.
