

Carter, Potente Vows Spoken In Southport

Margaret Leanne Carter of Southport and James Michael Potente of Raleigh were married at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 8, in Southport Presbyterian Church.

Father John Richardson officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Carter Sr. of Southport. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Potente Jr. of Newburgh, N.Y.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and illusion netting. Schiffli embroidery and pleated ruffles accented the high collar and fitted sleeves. Alencon lace covered the fitted bodice and was applied on the front of the full skirt. The sheer yoke was highlighted with pearl beading and crystals. Scalloped Schiffli embroidery bordered the hemline and an intricate pattern of lace embellished the cathedral-length train.

The bridal headpiece was covered with Alencon lace and beaded with pearls and crystals. Iridescent flowers formed a sweeping design on one side. The two-tiered fingertip length veil was highlighted with miniature appliques of beaded Alencon lace.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered around white orchids.

Teresa Johnson of Burlington was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rebecca Whitaker of Raleigh; Anna Spears of Concord; Mary Jones of Charleston, S.C., a cousin of the bride; and Jamie Thompson of Fairmont, cousin of the bride.

They wore identical tea-length gowns of ice pink taffeta with full skirts, basque waistlines and large candy-box bows at each shoulder. They wore coronets with veils of ice pink illusion netting and carried bouquets of pink roses and mixed spring flowers in shades of pink.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of rose chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a chemise style lilac dress of georgette with matching accessories and a white corsage.

Chris Stormer of Columbia, S.C., was Potente's best man. Ushers were David Potente, brother of the groom, of Newburgh, N.Y.; Kenneth Carter, brother of the bride, of Southport; David Hitch of Raleigh; and I.A. Patrick Ortland of Ft. Deven, Mass.

Mrs. Debbie Skillman of Southport, organist, and Mrs. Helen Warren of Garland, soloist, provided a program of wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Southport Community Building.

Mrs. Potente is a graduate of Meredith College in Raleigh. A graduate of Clemson University, the groom is presently working toward a doctoral degree in chemical engineering at N.C. State University. They will reside in Raleigh.

Bike Event Nets $3,000 For Leukemia Society

Participants raised more than $3,000 for the Leukemia Society in a May 19 bike-a-thon sponsored by the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club, reports Trish Poulos, coordinator.

A total of $3,115.65 was donated to the Society, and donations are still being accepted, she added, with checks to be mailed to the society, in care of Mrs. Gary Poulos, 111 Mullet

Street, Holden Beach, N.C. 28462.

Peggy Ellis turned in the largest sum of pledges, $415, and won a bicycle donated by a local merchant. Peggy Reeves, in second place, received a $25 prize from a local bank.

Trophies for riding the longest distance—30 miles—went to Joey Galloway, Ryan Cooper, Daniel Russ, Adam Corbett and Donnie Warren.

Four-year-old Jenny Trest was the youngest rider, biking one mile on her tricycle and then walking one-half mile. Two other participants also walked, including Brenda Lewis, who walked six miles and collected $180 in donations.

Neither Cathy Milligan nor Kristy Poulos, on crutches with an injured knee, could ride in the event, but both collected donations—Mrs. Milligan, $85, and Kristy, $265.

Several other riders won prizes donated by local merchants in drawings held the day of the bike-a-thon.

Assisting Ms. Poulos with the event were clubwomen Pam Greenwood, recruitment; Brenda Register, prizes; Donna Trest, refreshments; and Kim Galloway, publicity.

"We want to thank all area residents and businesses for their generous donations," said Mrs. Poulos.

Proceeds of the fundraising event help to support leukemia research and aid to leukemia patients.
