

MRS. JOHN EDWARD MILLER
... formerly Judy Renee Waples

Waples, Miller Wedding Vows Exchanged

During a 3 p.m. ceremony Sunday, June 9, Judy Renee Waples and John Edward Miller were married at Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte.

Rev. Dr. W. Stanley Smith, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Waples of Shallotte. The groom is the son of Major and Mrs. Dwayne E. Miller of Redstone Arsenal, Ala.

The bride was escorted by her father. The couple was given in marriage by the groom's family and the bride's parents.

Her gown was of candlelight organza and featured a wattleu train and keyhole back shoulderline. The high neckline and natural waistline were accented with Venice lace motifs and seed pearls, as were the full-length bishop sleeves. Venice lace also accented the sleeve cuffs and edged the chapel length veil. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white rose with purple accents and wore an antique pendant that had belonged to her paternal grandmother.

Karen W. Taylor of Greensboro and Linda W. Smith of Woodbridge, Va., sisters of the bride, served as matrons of honor. Bridesmaids were Rene L. Miller, sister of the groom, and Kristin E. Howard of Potomac, Md.

The attendants wore identical tea-length dresses of purple taffeta with a triple bow detail at one shoulder. The matrons carried fans of candlelight lace accented with a spray of lavender, pink and candlelight silk flowers and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of silk flowers in the same colors.

Lea Fisher of Anderson, S.C., cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of lavender taffeta. She sprinkled rose petals from a basket lined in satin and lace.

Edward Kemp of Gaithersburg, Md., served the groom as best man. Ushers were Brian Miller, brother of the groom; Robert W. Waples, brother of the bride; and Edward George of Walnut, Kan., cousin of the groom.

Wedding music was provided by organist Major Dwayne Miller, father of the groom; and soloist Steven M. Hamilton, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of rose-fuschia chiffon crepe with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a mauve colored street length dress with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Julie Hamilton, cousin of the bride, kept the bridal register. Mrs. Dorothy H. Shriver of Rockville, Md., aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Colorado Springs, Colo.

'75 Reunion Ideas Sought

Organizers of a 10-year reunion of the West Brunswick High School Class of 1975 are looking for ideas from fellow classmates for the event.

"We need the help of all classmates," said Mary Frink Potts, local contact person, and Kim Evans, class president. "We need their opinions and suggestions to help get this started."

Rather than holding a meeting, they're asking classmates to forward their ideas by mail or telephone, providing in addition their current name and address. Classmates can write Ms. Potts at P.O. Box 745, Shallotte, N.C. 28459, or Evans at 106 N. 26th Street, Wilmington, N.C. 28405, or they can call Ms. Potts evenings at 754-4956.

Walls Have A Daughter

David and Amy Walls of Supply are the parents of an eight-pound, eight-ounce girl, Cara Dawn, born May 17 in Cape Fear Memorial Hospital in Wilmington.

Cara has a brother, Darin, age 2. Her maternal grandparents are Ralph and Betty Hunnicutt of Supply. Her paternal grandparents are David and Peggy Walls of Gastonia.

Area Seniors Plan Trips

County senior citizens are eligible to sign up for several trips, according to Ouida Hewett, senior adult coordinator for the Brunswick County Volunteer and Information Center.

A trip to Nova Scotia is planned August 4-14, as well as visits to the state's outdoor dramas throughout July and August. A limited number of free tickets are available to the dramas and will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. More information on all trips is available by calling 253-4441.

Mrs. Hewett said her office is also available to arrange trips for senior adult groups and to provide a resource person to speak at senior adult meetings.
