... formerly Pamela Jean Powell

Powell, Hrubik Vows Exchanged

Pamela Jean Powell and Paul John Hrubik were married Saturday, June 22, in a double-ring ceremony in Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte.

Rev. W. Stanely Smith officiated the exchange of vows.

The bride is the daughter of Gerald E. Powell of Shallotte and Mrs. Carolyn C. Powell of Ocean Isle Beach. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Vivian H. Powell of Shallotte and Mr. and Mrs. Gaither E. Crutchfield of Whiteville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Evans of Supply.

Mrs. Doris Redwine, organist, provided wedding music that included "Time In A Bottle," "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Wedding March."

Three brass candleabras with white tapers highlighted the altar, along with two baskets of pink carnations, white pom-pom chrysanthemums, daisies and babies' breath.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of ivory organza with a Queen Anne neckline, fitted waist and long full lace sleeves. The bodice was trimmed with lace and seed pearls. The A-line skirt flowed into a cathedral-length train. Her two-tiered veil of illusion fell from a derby-style hat of lace and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white daisies and babies' breath.

Lisa S. Powell of Ocean Isle Beach served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sammie Frink of Sunset Beach, Mrs. Dallas Phelps of Shallotte and Mrs. Barbara Caison of Holden Beach.

The bridal attendants wore teal-length gowns of pink taffeta with a pink lace overlay. They carried identical bouquets of pink carnations and babies' breath secured with pink and white love-knotted streamers.

Kenwood Evans of Wilmington was the groom's best man. Ushers were Terry Phelps and Joseph Sullivan, both of Shallotte, and Gary Phelps of Supply.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of pink and grey silk linen. The groom's mother chose a street-length dress of lavender taffeta crepe with lavender lace. Each wore a double white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall, where a two-tiered bride's cake was served.

The newlyweds will live in Supply.

Club Hears Program

Food and nutrition was the subject of the June 24 meeting of the Supply Extension Homemakers Club, according to a news release.

Nine members and two visitors, Mrs. Jill Nash and son, attended the meeting, held at the home of Gladys Geller.

Clara Schuster called the 10 a.m. meeting to order. As part of her program, Extension Agent Mary Russ brought along a few quick dishes and snacks for members to taste.

The club also plans to have a craft table at the N.C. Fourth of July Festival in Southport for one day only, on the 4th from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Club members meet next on July 16 at 10 a.m. at Brunswick Electric Membership Corp. in Shallotte.

Coastal BPW Now Organizing

An organizational meeting for the Coastal Business and Professional Women's (BPW) Club will be held Tuesday, July 9, at 6:30 p.m. at Grandma Mary's in Little River, S.C.

The new club, for working women in the Shallotte, Calabash and Little River, S.C., areas, meets alternating months in Brunswick County and Horry County.

More information is available by contacting Chris Rosdahl, 579-3161, or Lisa Young, 249-3449.

Faulks Have Son

James Dejuan and Pamela Scheid Faulk are the parents of a son, James Kramer, born Wednesday, June 19 in Grand Strand General Hospital at Myrtle Beach, S.C. Their first child, he weighed seven pounds, 9½ ounces and was 20½ inches long.

Ronnie and Doll Scheid of Calabash are his maternal grandparents. Vesta Faulk of Hickman's Crossroads and J. R. Faulk of Goose Creek, S.C. are his paternal grandparents.

Seniors Meet

The Holden Beach Senior Citizens group will meet July 8 at 7:30 p.m. at Virginia Craig's River Home on Seashore Drive for an evening of recreation.

Members will play bingo, with lots of prizes awarded, said Myrtle Hanke, spokesman.
