

Gore Yard Earns Recognition

A yard that's trim and colorful all year round has won July Yard of the Month honors from the Long Bay Garden Club. Club member Alice Robinson (left) stationed the sign last week in the yard of Bobby and Yvonne Gore of the Gause Landing area. The Gores team up to care for their yard, which features a wide variety of flowering plants and shrubs and evergreens. Yard of the Month selection is based on choice of native plant material, care and maintenance and aesthetics.

Beachcombers Discuss Shelter

The Beachcombers home extension club is seeking ways to provide help for the victims of abuse in the home.

According to a report of the group's July meeting, club members discussed ways of assisting the proposed Brunswick County shelter for abused wives and children.

Also discussed at the July meeting was the availability of the Frances J. Pooie Scholarship for women needing to upgrade their job skills.

President Katherine Shawver presided at the meeting and led the devotion.

She announced that Linda Brisson of Dublin was the winner of the quilt for which donations were solicited at the July 4 celebration in Southport. Some $500 was raised through the project.

"Accent Your Figure" was the subject of the program presented by Eleanor Huff.

She discussed various ways to enhance ones' best features or to camouflage figure faults through the use of color, design and texture. Huff demonstrated the most favorable ways to use accessories such as belts, scarves and jewelry. In addition, she demonstrated exercises to tone the muscles to achieve a better figure. The meeting closed with the club collect.

'Christmas In July' Sale Set By Holden Beach Seniors

The Yuletide Season will get an early start again this year when the Holden Beach Senior Citizens conduct the second Christmas in July sale July 27.

The group will sell crafts, rummage, hot dogs and baked goods from 9 a.m. to dusk at the Tri-Beach Fire Station on Sabbath Home Road.

To highlight this year's sale, the Holden Beach Senior Citizens will accept donations for a chicken scratch quilt as its fundraising project. The brown and white quilt was made by the senior citizen women in craft classes held at the fire station each Thursday afternoon. The winner of the quilt will be announced Aug. 12.

Proceeds from the Christmas in July sale will benefit Tri-Beach Fire Station and the Holden Beach Senior Citizens.

Those wishing to donate furniture, appliances or other items to the sale are asked to contact Neil Stephenson at 842-2869 or Hubert McKee at 842-2911.

Book Purchase Aids Library

It's a unique opportunity for library patrons to obtain a book of local historical significance while offering support to the Brunswick County Public Library.

Library Director Maurice Taylor has announced that special copies of "Bald Head: A History of Smith Island and Cape Fear" by David Stick, may be purchased in person or by mail for $30 each from the main library, located at 109 West Moore Street, Southport, N.C. 28461. Mail orders should include $1 for postage and insurance.

All proceeds will go to the library, Ms. Taylor said.

The books are signed by the author, known for his works and research on the Outer Banks of North Carolina. They are from a limited edition of 500 signed and numbered copies.

Animal Welfare League To Meet

The Brunswick County Animal Welfare League will meet Monday, July 22 at 8 p.m. in the Public Assembly Room at the county complex in Bolivia, according to league President Teddi Neal.

Plans will be made for fundraisers for the coming year and priorities will be listed for the money collected. In addition, specific duties will be planned for volunteers.

Neal told The Beacon that volunteers are needed to construct dog houses for the program. All lumber and materials for the project has been donated by Al Parker of J.M. Parker & Sons.

Also needed, Neal said, are pictures of dogs to place on donation jars, which will be distributed for display throughout the county.

The league welcomes all animal lovers to attend the meeting. All kids interested in organizing a children's club are asked to attend Monday night's meeting.
