Youth Day Set

The Greater Eastern District of the Fire Baptized Church of the Americas will conduct its annual Youth Day activities Saturday, July 20 at 11 a.m. at the Holy Bethel Fire Baptized Holiness Church in Thomasboro.
The church is located on U.S. 17, approximately 14 miles South of Shallotte.
Coordinator for the event is Rev. Ethel Corbett, supervisor. Young People's Institute president is Mrs. Mildred W. Bellamy. Pastor for the church is Rev. Alonza L. Rodgers.
Church members will crown some young lady as Miss Eastern to celebrate the event.

Tops In Drama

The Leland Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints won top honors during an evening of roadshows Saturday, July 13.
The roadshows, 15-minute plays which must include music, dance and scenery, were presented at the Latter-day Saints Stake Center. The competition was open to all wards in the Wilmington Stake.
The Leland Ward's show was judged Best All-Around Roadshow.
Individual awards and winners included the following: best actor, Fay O'Dell; best actress, Amy Thomas; best supporting Actress, Carolyn Skipper. In addition, the ward won awards for best script, best music and best scenery.
Judges were Charles Foss and Donna Shingleton.
The roadshow was directed by Cindy Collins of Leland. The show was built around a patriotic theme and included a cast of some 75 people, including 19 families which made family banners illustrating the values most precious to each of them.

Fuson Will Speak

Dr. Ted Fuson, a Baptist minister from Woodbridge, Va., will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Holden Beach Chapel.
The non-sectarian, Protestant chapel is located on Rothschild Street, Holden Beach.

Performs Friday

A contemporary Christian musician, Kenny Marks, will perform songs from his new album, "Right Where You Are," at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the North Myrtle Beach Convention Center.
A former youth specialist with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, Marks has cut albums for Myrrh Records and has been a guest on the "Gospel Country" series on cable TV's Nashville Network.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Local Delegation Joins Hundreds At Church Meet

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT
Missionary Baptists from our area, along with hundreds across the state, are gathering this week for the 101st All Baptist Assembly of the Woman's Baptist State Convention.
Sister Annie R. Bryant will lead the District 6 Group 2 as its president. This district is made up of Brunswick, Columbus and New Hanover counties.
Wedding Vows Said
Carliss Cassandra Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bryant Sr. of Pleasantville, and Arthur Michael Irvin, son of Mrs. Flora Irvin of Asbury Park, were married May 25 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Pleasantville. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gore of our area.
Recent Visitors
Visiting their parents here recently were Edison Gore of Maryland and their son, Norman Gore, his wife and son of Texas.
The Mercers were in Fayetteville this past weekend to attend the funeral of their special friend, Mrs. Ruth Williams McDonald. She was the aunt and mother to their son-in-law, Marshall Lovett.
Completes Training
Craig Cobles, a 1984 graduate of West Brunswick High School, has completed basic training and a course of study at the Seaman's Apprentice Training School at the Naval Base at Great Lakes, Illinois.

His mother, Patricia Cobb, and grandmother, Lucille Grissett, had the opportunity to fly to Great Lakes for his graduation. He was home on leave since that time and is now aboard the USS Mooseburger in Pascogoula, Mississippi. In July he will tour Charleston, S.C., Florida and the Caribbean.
Craig's four years of JROTC at West Brunswick have been most helpful, he said.
