

Bryant-Hankins Family Reunion Held Recently

The 20th annual Bryant-Hankins family reunion was recently held at the Little Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church with relatives and friends attending.

Out-of-state relatives included Mrs. Orilla B. Anderson and Mrs. Rhoda B. Mason of Jacksonville, Fla.; Dr. and Mrs. Charles (Lennie) Price from Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. James Mason Jr. and their two sons from Tennessee. A long-time friend of Mrs. Price, Mrs. Julia F. Hill, formerly of Southport, also attended.

From across the state, among those attending were Mr. James R. Covington and Dr. Valenica Covington of Fayetteville; Catherine and Willie Cannon and Ronnie Hardy from Winston-Salem; Michael Covington from Wilmington; Anthony Hardy from Greensboro and Mr. and Mrs. James R. (Either B.) Covington from Kinston. Mrs. Lennie Price, who recently retired, was also recognized for having taught school for 30 years in Atlanta.

Dr. Valenica Covington was also recognized for being selected as a member of the "Outstanding Young Women of America." She is completing her final year of internship at Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Marlow were proud grandparents of a graduate from the Headstart program, Yaphet Marlow, a graduate from high school, Kecia Gause, and a graduate from Winston-Salem State University, Juan Williams. Their daughter, Betty, also became the mother of twins recently. Mr. and Mrs. Tilmon Bowens announced two new grandsons born to Lila Mae and Hilda. Mrs. Madalyne Hardie also has a new granddaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Randy Hardie.

Michael Covington also recently graduated from the N.C. State University School of Engineering. Mr. and Mrs. Ottee Bryant's daughter, Kimbala Bryant, made all As during the school year.

A silent tribute was made for loved ones that have passed away since the last reunion: Mrs. Eva Virginia Lee, Benjamin G. Hankins and Mrs. Juanita Hankins Watson.

The oldest family members present were Mrs. Ida Bryant Faulk and Mrs. Doshia Hankins Marlow.

Rape Task Force Organizing

The Brunswick County Council on the Status of Women will meet next Thursday, August 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bolivia Town Hall next to Bolivia Elementary School.

The topic of the meeting will be "A Call For Rape Task Force Volunteers," with a guest speaker from Crisis Line in Wilmington.

The Brunswick County Council on the Status of Women would like to initiate a Rape Task Force in Brunswick County, said spokesperson Margaret Shelton.

"We hope to organize and train volunteers to assist victims of rape/sexual assault," a news release from the organization stated. "We currently have no such service available in our hospitals."

Anyone interested in helping to organize a Rape Task Force are asked to attend the meeting. For more information, call 1-800-672-2903 or 1-762-4255, and state that you would like to help in Brunswick County.
