Holt Selected For Who's Who Honor

Holly Elizabeth Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Amick of Burlington and Calabash, and John W. Holt of Gause Landing, has been accepted into "Who's Who In American High School Students."

She was selected on the basis of her outstanding academic achievements. A dually enrolled senior at Williams High School in Burlington and freshman at Elon College, Holly plans to attend N.C. State University in the fall to major in computer science.

She has been involved in French and math honors programs, student council, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Dancemasters of America and is an aerobic dance instructor. She works part-time as a china consultant at Belk-Beck Co.

Earns Mention

Christalla Daniels of Longwood received an honorable mention and a cutting board during the 12th state 4-H Back-to-School Clothing Contest held Aug. 8 in Raleigh.

Also competing from Brunswick County were Cynthia Williams and Tabitha Daniels of Longwood and Tania Butler of Shallotte. They were accompanied by Etherine Butler and Lena Mae Butler of Shallotte, 4-H leaders; and Pearl W. Stanley, county home economics extension agent.

The contest provides an opportunity for youth ages nine to 13 to demonstrate creativity in selecting and constructing a garment in cotton or cotton blend fabric. Participants also attended a variety of fashion-related workshops.

Local Baby Wins

Rhonette Phillips, nine months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Phillips of Shallotte, was named the winner of a nine months and under baby photo contest sponsored by a local department store throughout North Carolina. Miss Phillips competed against contestants at four stores in the state. Winners were named in each age group and prizes of $25 were awarded to the winners.

Prevost Reappointed

Jean Prevost of Southport has been reappointed to the 25-member Tryon Palace Commission by Gov. Jim Martin.

The commission administers the reconstructed New Bern home of the last two colonial governors and the first governors of the independent state of North Carolina. It oversees the workings of both the palace and the surrounding gardens and historic homes that make up the complex.

Airman Promoted

Joni M. Stoppelbein, daughter of Marshall M. and A. Ruth Laffon of Route 1, Supply, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

She is a personnel specialist at Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla., with the 325th Combat Support Group.

Varnam Accepted

Dwanna Lyn Varnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O'neal Varnam of Route 2, Supply, has been accepted by Miller Motte Business College in Wilmington.

At the two-year college, she will study to become an executive secretary.

Dwanna is a 1985 graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Attend Meeting

South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce co-directors Anne Marie Schettini and Karen Moshoures attended a joint meeting of the South Carolina and North Carolina Associations of Carolina Chamber Executives (ACCE) in Charleston, S.C. this week.

They participated in seminars on topics ranging from membership recruitment to special events planning.

Green Decorated

Air Force Major Gary O. Green, son of Owen C. and Alice B. Green of Ridgewood Drive, Shallotte, has been decorated with the Meritorious Service Medal at Barksdale Air Force Base, La.

The medal is awarded for outstanding non-combat meritorious achievement or service to the United States.

Green is a strategic bomber pilot with the 62nd Bombardment Squadron.

Baptist Convention Held At Big Macedonia Church

The Brunswick-Waccamaw Association Sunday School annual convention was held recently at Big Macedonia Baptist Church with Rev. L.R. Keel pastor.

Theme for the convention was, "The Church As A Family," with one of the highlights the crowning of the new king and queen, Hubert Shipman Jr. and Anne Shipman of New Light Baptist Church of Hallsboro.

The king and queen contest is held to help raise money for the scholarship fund, used each year to award five $300 scholarships to students to further their education.

Twelve Sunday schools participated in the convention that was called to order during the Friday morning session by President Haywood McKoy II. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Leo Williams, director of religious education, General Baptist State Convention, Raleigh.

The afternoon session continued with a Bible quiz open to youths and young adults. Winners were, from the youth division, Dawn Anders of Little Wheel of Hope Baptist Church, Lake Waccamaw, and from the young adults, Gloria George of Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Chadburn.

A theme development contest for the youths was also sponsored to help develop speaking ability. Judging the spontaneous speech contest were Sibil Simmons, Angela Metts and Willie Joe Walls. Winner from the Brunswick area was Tekelia Morgan of Zion Hill Baptist Church of Bolivia.

A memorial service for all deceased members of the 21 churches of the Brunswick-Waccamaw Baptist Association was conducted by Ms. Lizzie Mitchell.

The Saturday morning session included activities of the Baptist Training Union called to order by President Eugene George, who conducted a lesson on "How To Properly Conduct A Meeting." A sermon was delivered by Rev. Jerry Ganus, of Mt. Zion of Chadburn.

Leverne George presided over the usher convention, highlighted by a "Grand March of Ushers" with over 31 participating. A workshop was also conducted by Rev. Thurman Chestnut on "Church Ushering."
