Channel 6 Gets Meteorologist

A new face has joined the team at WECT-TV 6 in Wilmington, according to Karen Fox, director of community relations. Dan Parker began work Monday NewsCenter6's first full-time meteorologist, replacing Marti Skold, who left the station to join the staff of WIBV-TV in Buffalo, N.Y. Parker, 26, comes from Fort Smith, Ark., where he was on-air meteorologist for KFSM-TV for 14 months. He also interned for two years as assistant meteorologist at WRC-TV in Washington, D.C., training under WRC meteorologist Bob Ryan, the first meteorologist on NBC's The Today Show.

He attended the University of Arizona at Tucson on a golf scholarship, graduating in 1982 with a degree in meteorology and broadcasting.

WECT-TV 6 also has announced the addition of a new state-of-the-art weather graphics computer.

Mixed Malamute Up For Adoption

A black and white male mixed malamute is just one of the pets available for adoption this week from the Brunswick County Animal Shelter in Supply.

Others include a short-haired black male cat, a short-haired brown and black tabby cat, a male brown and black-tipped cocker spaniel and a large male mixed German shepherd.

These animals and others can be seen at the shelter Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The shelter is located off N.C. 211 near Supply.

Reggae Group Plays Sunday

A Brunswick County reggae group, Generals of the Swamps, makes its formal debut Sunday, Sept. 1, at "Reggae Day in the Park" at Greenfield Park in Wilmington.

Most of the members come from the Bolivia area. The group, which has been playing together about a year, includes singers Andre Bernard and Thelma Bernard, guitarists Ras Benjamin Lewis and Billy Lewis, percussionist Ras Bobby Lewis and drummer and keyboard artists Ras Frank Randolph.

Tickets are $5 in advance and $6 at the door. Children under 12 will be admitted free to the family-oriented show when accompanied by an adult.

Also performing will be Mickey Mills and Steel, based in Chapel Hill. Reggae developed on the island of Jamaica in the late 1960s and '70s, mixing traditional Afro-Caribbean rhythms with rhythm and blues.

Rained In?

Rain adds more than just water to your pool. It adds bacteria, dirt and grime. And that changes your water's chemistry. But Less Residue HTH® Dry Chlorinator, America's finest, keeps your water's chemistry right on the mark. No chlorine in any form is stronger or more effective in getting water sparkling clean.

Water so clear...
It's startling.
