Milliken Is Commissioned

William A. (Al) Milliken Jr., son of Alton and E. B. Milliken of Shallotte, was graduated July 26 from the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

The newly-commissioned second lieutenant will be assigned to jump school, then Ranger school at Fort Benning for eventual assignment to the 82 Airborne Division at Fort Bragg.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Youth Leads Program Saturday

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

The youth will be in charge of the program Saturday when the 15 churches of the Ocean View Union assemble at St. James Missionary Baptist Church in Bolivia for the regular quarterly service.

They will be under the supervision of sisters Arveila Marlowe of the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Thomasboro, and Dorothy Lee Frink, Little Prong Missionary Baptist Church of Ash.

Musicians are Timothy Stanley, Zion Plain Missionary Baptist, Nakina, and Robert Flythe, Friendship Church, Southport. Monekia Gause will bring a message on the theme after being introduced by Melandy Gause. Solo will be by Larry and Gary Hill.

The union convenes at 9:30 a.m. and lunch will be served at 1 p.m. The public is invited.

Homecoming Observed

Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church held its annual homecoming Sunday. Youths responsible for providing the music for the morning worship service included Tora Herring, Janelle Hewett, Monekia Hewett, Nakelia Hewett, Twanda Hewett, Wanda Morgan, Sandie Johnson, LaMonte Bernard, Gregory Hewett and Jarvis Herring. This service was video-taped by Willie Hewett.

Revival services began at Cedar Grove Wednesday night with an evangelist from South Carolina.

Holiday Visitors

The last holiday of the summer brought many visitors. Guests in Mrs. Hattie Fullwood's home were her children, Perry and Virginia, Lt. Lindsey Fullwood, Gladys Williams and children, Clint Fullwood and family.

Visiting in the home of Harvey and Earnestine Bryant with their son Dwight were Michael Few of Detroit, Michigan and Kerry Bently of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. They are all students at Winston-Salem State University.

Visiting the community from New York and Richmond, Virginia were the mother, grandmother and aunt of Steven Douglas. They were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Bryant and are the in-laws of Wanda Bryant Douglas, our assistant district attorney.

Birthday Greetings

Happy birthday to everyone and especially to Junior Rogers, Nicholas Devon Hewett, Ricardo Blooms, Aldridge Reed, Troy Donaue Rogers, Charlite Howard, Candice Johnson and Sinclair Bernard.

An uncle, Ivren B. Hughes of Shallotte, administered the oath of office to Milliken. Hughes is a retired U.S. Air Force lieutenant colonel. Also attending from Shallotte were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Milliken, Mrs. Ruby Mintz, Mrs. Mary Williamson, Mrs. Anne Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson.

Sutton Assigned

Army Pvt. David K. Sutton, son of Betty J. Sutton and grandson of Thelma Sutton of Route 3, Leland, has arrived for duty in West Germany.

Sutton, a military police specialist with the 59th Ordinance Brigade, was previously assigned at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Attends Conference

Brunswick County Registrar of Deeds Robert J. Robinson recently attended the National Association of Recorders and Clerks (NARC) annual conference in Orlando, Fla., in conjunction with the National Association of Counties conference.

Robinson was one of 856 registrars who attended from across the United States. The NARC serves as the national voice for county government and represents more than two-thirds of the nation's 3,106 counties.

Topics Robinson helped discuss included the need for Land Records Systems, how local officials should work together, election issues and federal legislation.

Watercolor Workshop Set

Registration ends Oct. 1 for a watercolor workshop to be conducted by American Watercolor Society member Claude Croney Oct. 21-25, at Franklin Square Gallery in Southport.

The workshop will meet from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and will be held outdoors, weather permitting. There will be a demonstration each day, as well as individual help and critiques.

Croney has earned international recognition as a painter, teacher, author of three books on watercolor and recipient of more than 70 awards. His works are included in collections around the world and appear in at least three books on art.

The fee for the five-day workshop is $150 per student, payable in advance. Registrations are to be received by Oct. 1. Checks payable to Associated Artists of Southport should be mailed to June G. Brown, 114 S. Howe Street, Southport, N.C. 28461. For more information telephone 457-4377.

Marine Resources Center Offers 'How-Tos'

Coastal residents can sign up now for a variety of "how-to" opportunities offered this fall at the N.C. Marine Resources Center at Fort Fisher, from candle-making to fishing and cooking.

One of the most popular seasonal programs is the center's fall wild foods day. This year it will be contained in a half-day session that begins Saturday, Oct. 19, at 1 p.m. Participants gather foods from the ocean and marshes, then learn how to clean, prepare and enjoy their finds. A fee is charged.

A workshop and field trip for adult anglers will cover types of bait, rods, reels and casting techniques. Two sessions are offered, Friday, Sept. 6, and Sept. 20, from 9 a.m. until noon. Participants should bring their own rod and reel.

Sandcasting workshops will be offered Sept. 11, Oct. 16 and Nov. 13 at 2 p.m. each day. Participants will bring their favorite shells and pieces of driftwood to make sand castings from sand and plaster of paris. A small fee is charged.

Cooks of all ages can learn to prepare unusual seafoods at workshops offered Sept. 19, Oct. 17 and Nov. 21, at 2:30 p.m. A small fee is charged.

A course on building, setting up, maintaining and stocking salt water aquariums begins Oct. 23 and continues on Oct. 30, Nov. 6 and Nov. 16 from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Story and craft hours for children ages through six are scheduled Sept. 17, Oct. 22 and Nov. 12 at 9:30 a.m.

In December, participants will bring their own shells and beach finds to a tree trimming workshop on Dec. 5 at 2 p.m. and to a sand candle workshop on Dec. 10 at 2 p.m. A small fee is charged for each.

Preregistration is required for all workshops except the story hours. Call the Center at (919) 458-8257 to register.

During the fall the Center's daily schedule is 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. It opens from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays, with films at 2:30 p.m. and aquarium feedings at 4 p.m.

Its Sunday speakers program continues through early December at 2:30 p.m. each Sunday.

On Sept. 8, David Webster of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington will speak on "Sea Turtle Nesting on Masonboro Island." On Sept. 22, Mark Joyner of the N.C. Office of Marine Affairs will speak on "Mushrooms of Coastal North Carolina."

Women's Club Meets Tuesday

Members of the Coastal Business and Professional Women's Club will meet Tuesday, Sept. 10, at 6:30 p.m. at Granda Mary's Restaurant in Little River, S.C.

For reservations or more information, contact Chris Rosdahl or Lisa Young, 919-579-3161 or 803-249-3449.
