

Shallotte Man Charged In Saturday Accident

Jay Michael Whitman Sr., 42, of Shallotte was charged with failure to yield the right of way to an oncoming vehicle in an accident Saturday in which he and three other people were injured. The accident occurred on Highway 130, eight tenths of a mile southeast of Shallotte at 11:15 a.m. Trooper B.D. Barnhardt investigated the accident. Anna Taylor Ashe, 62, of Elton College was northwest bound in her 1973 Mercury when Whitman, who was southeast bound, turned in front of her in his 1983 Datsun station wagon.

Ashe and her passenger, Nellie Broadaway, 57, of McLeansville were taken to the Brunswick Hospital with Class C injuries, or complaints. Whitman and his passenger, Vicki Whitman, 28, of Shallotte, were taken to the hospital with more serious Class B injuries.

Driver Charged In Accident

A Route 1, Ash, man was charged with failure to make a safe movement following an early-morning accident in downtown Shallotte Saturday.

George Leslie Stanley, 21, was charged with a safe movement violation by Patrol Officer Nellie Evans. Stanley was traveling north on U.S. 17 about 12:28 a.m. when he turned left into the entrance of Hardee's Restaurant, failing to see an automobile approaching from the south. He pulled across in front of the car, a 1979 Plymouth operated by Garry Lynn Gooden, of Route 2, Elizabethtown, causing the Gooden vehicle to strike his car in the side. Gooden was transported to Brunswick Hospital in Supply with nonincapacitating injuries. Damages to the Gooden auto were an estimated $1,750, and to Stanley's 1974 Mercury, $750.

In other activity last week, Ronald L. Holden reported to auxiliary officer Martha Britt that sometime between Friday evening and 11 a.m. Sunday two windows were broken out of his office and the adjoining office in a building at the Lewis Shopping Center. Nothing was taken.

Also, between 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 30 and 2 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 2, a wheel and axles were stolen from under a 1981 Connor Mobile Home parked at Carter's Mobile Home Park in Shallotte. Bobby J. Hooks of South Carolina reported the loss the following day, on Thursday afternoon. The mobile home had been repossessed Monday morning and parked in the lot.

Two Arrested On Drug Charges

A man and a woman from the Oak Grove community were arrested Friday, Oct. 4, on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to sell and deliver and possession of drug paraphernalia.

The charges were filed by Detective David Crocker against Kelly Gordon Adee, 19, and Alan Wayne Jefferies, 28, both of Hight Landing. Crocker said the two were arrested about 6:30 p.m. in conjunction with a search of their mobile home residence with the use of a search warrant.

Officers also confiscated assorted pipes, scales, seeds, bongs, feathers, rolling papers and magazines allegedly used "to plant, prepare, package, contain and introduce into the body" a controlled substance.

Both were released under $600 surety bonds and are to appear in Brunswick County District Criminal Court on Nov. 18.

Grand Jury Returns True Bills
