NOTICE OF EXPLANATION

Brunswick County, North Carolina intends to make a $735,000 loan to Carolina Caribbean Carriers to lease an 8 (+) acre existing barge site and meet startup working and working capital requirements. This project is located in a 100 year flood plain. All proposed barge sites available to the firm are within 100 year flood plain, therefore, there is no practical alternative to the proposed project. Failure to make this loan will result in Brunswick County losing new employment opportunities (50 jobs) and private investment ($2,000,000). It is the County's judgement that the implementation of this project and its positive economic impact outweighs consideration of Executive Order 11988 and 11990.

A more detailed description of the project and HUD Flood Plain maps are available for inspection at the Brunswick County Resources Development Commission office, Brunswick County Government Complex, Bolivia, North Carolina.

Cooperative Drug Conspirator's Sentence Is Delayed

A delayed sentence will allow an admitted drug conspirator time to cooperate further with authorities following a plea entered in Brunswick County Superior Criminal Court last week.

Bailey Owens Cooper of Charlotte was arrested 16 months ago on charges of conspiracy to traffic and trafficking in more than 10,000 pounds of marijuana. Those charges were dismissed in exchange for Cooper's plea to a lesser charge of conspiracy to traffic marijuana by possession of more than 2,000 pounds and less than 10,000 pounds.

Cooper was arrested in the wake of a drug investigation in the Ocean Isle Beach area in May 1983. Brunswick County officers, SBI agents and Ocean Isle Beach policemen raided a mobile home in Lakewood Estates after following a truck there from a house they had been watching at Ocean Isle Beach. They found more than 14,000 pounds of marijuana inside. Five men were arrested; at least one has pleaded guilty to state charges, Christopher Glen Ford.

Cooper was arrested in 1984 and has remained in custody since then.

His condominium telephone number was among the effects of another alleged conspirator and one smuggler told officials Cooper had asked him to tend a stash house in Lenoir County, which Assistant District Attorney Thomas Hicks said was linked with the operation here.

Cooper's attorney, Howard F. Twigg, said that further cooperation was part of the agreement in which Judge F. Gordon Battle of Chapel Hill entered a prayer of judgment until July 1, 1987. The prayer for judgment may be terminated any time before that date at the district attorney's discretion.

Cooper could have been sentenced to 14 to 20 years in prison.

Before the plea was agreed upon, a bevy of witnesses had been subpoenaed by the state in anticipation of a lengthy trial.

Other cases heard are as follows: Paul R. Gove, first degree sex offense; State Department of Corrections three years.

Benny Lee Hewett, two counts felonious breaking and entering; two counts larceny; State Department of Corrections three years, court recommends work release, court recommends restitution $32 Roy Baker and $977 John Hutchens.

Donald C. C. Breasette, uttering forged instrument (three counts each); State Department of Corrections four years at expiration of any sentence previously entered, suspended, supervised probation five years, usual terms and conditions, $100 and costs, restitution $50 to Quick & Easy, $53.94 to Holden Beach Grocery.

Donald C. C. Breasette, forgery and uttering; $35 to Hughes' Marina, remain full-time student.

Walter Lee Graham, felonious hit and run; involuntary manslaughter; State Department of Corrections five years, work release recommended, restitution Bill Phillips $4,200.

Monica Ann Baptist, uttering paper with forged endorsement; State Department of Corrections two years at expiration of any previous sentence, suspended, supervised probation three years, costs, restitution attorney fees $250, restitution Holiday Beverage store $275, Wilson's $137.50, Hills $137.50.

Dale Leo Clemmons, DWI; Level 3, Brunswick County Jail six months, suspended, unsupervised probation one year, $300 and costs, surrender operators license, non operate motor vehicle 10/2/85 through 10/2/86.
