

Soles Named Senior Loan Officer At UCB

Danny L. Soles has been named senior loan officer with business development responsibilities in Charlotte, according to city executive Leo Johnson.

Soles, who joined UCB in 1971 as auditor, has been serving as city executive in Chadbourne since 1981.

The Whiteville native graduated from the Raleigh School of Data Processing in 1967 and attended Southeastern Community College in 1969. He earned a diploma from the American Institute of Banking in 1983 and graduated from the N.C. School of Banking's Mid-Management Program in 1983 and the Advanced Management Program in 1984.

Named "citizen of the year" in 1984 by the Chadbourne Civitan Club, Soles' civic involvement includes serving as president of the Chadbourne Lions Club in 1984-85, president of the N.C. Strawberry Festival in 1984, director of the Chadbourne Chamber of Commerce from 1981 to 1985, and chairman of the Chadbourne Community Finance Committee. He has also served on the Cape Fear Council of Boy Scouts of America from 1981 to 1983 and presently serves as a member of the Lakes District committee of the Cape Fear Council BSA.

Soles and his wife, Nina Ann of Whiteville, have twin 11-year-old sons, John and Jerry, and attend the Chadbourne Baptist Church, where Soles is director of Sunday School and director of the Adult Assembly.

United Carolina Bank operates 99 offices in 56 North Carolina locations and has assets in excess of $1.4 billion.

Visited Campus

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Somers of Long Beach, with daughters Candi and Kathleen, were among more than 200 families that attended Parents Weekend at Peace College in Raleigh Sept. 28 and 29.

The Somers sat through abbreviated forms of several of their daughter's classes and joined faculty, staff and/or students for several events, including a variety show that included a dance contest among parents.
