

Redwine To Address Volunteers

Rep. David Redwine of Ocean Isle Beach will serve as master of ceremonies and guest speaker at the Volunteer and Information Center's annual volunteer awards dinner.

Approximately 175 volunteers will be recognized at the dinner, to be held Saturday, Oct. 19, at 6:30 p.m. at the public assembly building of the Brunswick County Government Center at Bolivia.

They will receive certificates from the VIC office, from Gov. James Martin's office. Some will also surprise gifts donated by local businesses or 100-hour service pins, said Ouida Hewett, VIC volunteer coordinator.

Winners in 12 categories will be announced, along with first, second and third runners-up.

Entertainment will be provided by Erica Wolf and April Cumber of Shallotte First Baptist Church.

Dinner will be catered by the Shallotte Volunteer Rescue Squad and will cost $5 each. Reservations must be made by 4 p.m. today (Thursday).

The 12 categories of awards are as follows: individual human service; individual community leader; administrator/coordinator of volunteers; youth; senior citizen; disabled person; school; one-on-one; church; community volunteer organization; church/religious and business/industrial involvement.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Concord Plans Homecoming

Concord United Methodist Church at Supply will celebrate Homecoming Sunday, Oct. 20.

A dinner at the church will follow the 11 a.m. worship service. Former pastors and members are welcome, said spokesman J.M. Holden, secretary.

The church is located on N.C. 211. Celebrates 91 Years 14 pt italic

Members of New Hope Presbyterian Church at Winnabow will celebrate the church's 91st anniversary Sunday, Oct. 20.

A former pastor, Rev. Jan Smoock, will preach during the 11 a.m. worship service.

Lunch will be served at noon, followed by an afternoon program of music.

Revival Continues

Revival continues through Friday at Supply Baptist Church, with services at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Thad Dowdle of Lenoir is the guest evangelist. Special music is planned each evening and a nursery will be provided.

The public is invited.

Vehicle Donated

A group of Ocean Isle Beach property owners have pooled their funds and purchased a four wheel drive vehicle for use in conjunction with the strand services held each summer by Shallotte Presbyterian Church.

In use for the Labor Day weekend service at the close of the season, the vehicle replaces an aging Jeep that was used with the portable public address system.

Homecoming Set

Village Point United Methodist Church at Shallotte Point will hold Homecoming Sunday, Oct. 20, said spokesman Patty Jones.

A covered-dish lunch will be served at the close of the 11 a.m. worship service. The New Believers will provide special music during the afternoon program.

Everyone is invited, she said.

Cemetery Cleaning Planned At Sharon

Sharon United Methodist Church plans a cemetery cleaning Saturday, Oct. 19, beginning at 9 a.m.

The church asks that all persons with loved ones interred in the cemetery plan to come and help with the cleaning and maintenance.

The church is located near Holden Beach.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Relatives Watch Nephew

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

Doug Du Boise, a football player at the University of Nebraska known to his aunt, Mrs. B. T. Hewett of Bolivia School's Chapter I Reading, as "Little Doug," was named athlete of the week for his workhorse plays in Saturday's win over Oklahoma State University.

Family members here who saw the game on television were just thrilled to watch him in action and thankful he didn't get hurt. He sent his football card with a schedule of games through 1987.

Shaw Day Scheduled

Shaw Day will be observed at Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church Sunday Oct. 26. This is an occasion to give offerings to our own institution of higher learning, Shaw University in Raleigh. Your contribution will be appreciated and is tax deductible.

Goal is $12 per member or $1 per month. Coordinators for the program are Lorraine Williams, director of Brunswick County School's Support Services, and Sandra Robinson, a teacher at South Brunswick Middle School.

Other Church Notes

Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church is holding revival services this week. The pastor is Rev. Samuel Stanley and the evangelist is Rev. Gibson. The public is invited.

Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church of Grissetown will have its senior choir's anniversary program Sunday, Oct. 26 at 3 p.m. The pastor is Rev. Henry Jones Sr.

Birthday Greetings

Happy birthday to everyone and especially to Rev. Freeman Gause, Joyce Cox, Etter Hewett, Charlie Mitchell, Robert Smith, Linwood Randolph, Willie Hewett, Bernell McMillan, Loncease George, Rogers Grissett, Ebony Lee Grissett, Perry Gore, Kenneth Wilkerson, Dennis Wilkerson and Thomas N. Galloway.

Tune In

Be sure to listen to WVCB Radio in Shallotte Thursday at 3 p.m. and Saturday at 10:15 a.m. for the Cedar Grove area news and on Sunday at 3:30 p.m. for Moments of Inspiration gospel program.

Ordinary Standards Simply Won't Do

BY DICKY POWELL
BRUNSWICK FUNERAL SERVICE

The loss of someone who was loved can never be an easy experience, of course. But, bereavement, like so many other hardships, can be made easier by people who understand and know ways to help. The people at Brunswick Funeral Service reserve the most personal of service for the most personal of needs.

We firmly believe that in funeral service, ordinary standards simply are not good enough.
