

Homemakers Receive Awards Friday Night

PAMELA HANKINS (left) accepts congratulations from Home Economics Extension agent Mary Russ for winning the Francis Poole Scholarship to Brunswick Technical College.

Supply Extension Homemaker's Club members shouted and clapped when their group was named Club of the Year at the Brunswick County Extension Homemakers Annual Achievement Night Friday at the county complex.

The award was presented by Judy Gore, manager of membership services at Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation.

Gloria Bryant, president of the county organization and a member of the Bolivia Extension Homemakers, was chosen as Club Member of the Year.

Mary L. Russ, Home Economics Extension Agent, presented the award on behalf of Atlantic Telephone Membership Corporation.

Pamela Hankins was recognized as the recipient of the Frances Poole Memorial Scholarship to Brunswick Technical College.

Hankins, who is studying general office technology, was so impressed with the group she decided to become a member of the Bolivia Extension

Homemakers Club after receiving the scholarship.

Clubs take on projects during the year including voter registration drives, work with the handicapped, an adopt-a-student program, donation of volunteer time, sponsorship of blood pressure checks and children's fingerprinting clinics, among others.

Several clubs were recognized for their work in specific categories.

The Supply Extension Homemakers Club received three awards: Citizenship and Community Outreach; Cultural Arts, Textiles and Clothing; and Public Relations.

Extension Homemakers in Town Creek also received three awards: Family Resource Management; Health, Food and Nutrition; and Safety and Emergency Preparedness.

The Beachcombers Extension Homemakers Club was presented the International and Housing, Energy and Environment awards.

The Bolivia Extension Homemakers were cited for Family

Relationships and Child Development.

Thirty-two homemakers received certificates for yearly reading. Outstanding readers included Edith Hoy of the Guys and Dolls Club, 238 books; Eva Gray of the Shallotte Seniors Club, 205 books; and Betty Watt of the Beachcombers Club, 104 books.

Evelyn Gunnerson was presented with her 14-year perfect attendance pin.

Also receiving attendance pins were the following: Edith Pigott, eight years; Thelma Dunn, five years; Gloria Bryant and John Lewis, four years; Mary Richardson, Alda Lewis, Cora Johnson, Lucrester Mosley, Elizabeth Williams and Marie Wescott, three years.

Pat Nash, Clare Thomer and Helyn Phillips received two-year pins. Clara Schuster, Herbert Bryant, Marie Young, Hilda Lewis and Katherine Shawver received one-year pins.

GLORIA BRYANT, a member of the Bolivia Extension Homemakers Club, was awarded the Club Member of the Year Award during the Annual Extension Homemakers Achievement Night on Friday.
