

MRS. WILLIAM N. TRIPP
... the former Stacy Cherie Bell

Bell, Tripp Exchange Wedding Vows

Stacey Cherie Bell of Boiling Spring Lakes and William Nicholas Tripp of Ocean Isle Beach were married Saturday, Oct. 26, at Calvary Baptist Church in Shallotte.

Rev. Ivren Hughes officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wells Sr. of Boiling Spring Lakes. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Tripp of Shallotte Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown. Chantilly-type lace created a generous flounce encircling the sweetheart neckline with high lace collar. The lace hemline extended into a chapel-length train.

She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and alstromeria with babies' breath.

Mrs. Sheila Reaves of Leland was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a long pink rosebud satin gown that featured a sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves. The fitted waist dropped to a cluster of tiny gathers in the back.

Bridesmaids were Gina Purdue of Bolivia, stepsister of the bride; Christi Mullis of Wilmington, cousin of the bride; and Connie Borszich of Boiling Spring Lakes, a friend of the bride. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the matron of honor.

The bridal attendants carried small bouquets of pink carnations and alstromeria with babies' breath accents.

The groom's father served as his best man. Ushering were Robert Bell of Raleigh, brother of the bride; Kerry Smith and David Rourk, both of Shallotte and friends of the groom.

The bride's mother was attired in a gray street-length dress with pink satin belt. The groom's mother wore a jade green street-length dress with a tie sash. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Pianist and soloist for the service was Tracy Lord of Dublin, Ga., who sang "Time In A Bottle," "We've Only Just Begun," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The altar of the sanctuary was decorated with candelabras and white candles intertwined with ivy.

Kay McCumbee attended the guest register and Mrs. Kim Andrews directed the wedding.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall.

A three-tiered wedding cake was centered on the bride's table, with crystal candelabras holding pink candles at either end.

Mrs. Hazel Williams, a friend of the wedding couple, assisted in cutting the cake. Michelle Hobson, sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Kim Andrews assisted in serving.

Following a wedding trip to Raleigh, the couple is residing in Quail Run Estates near Ocean Isle Beach.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of South Brunswick High School at Boiling Spring Lakes. Her husband is a 1979 graduate of West Brunswick High School and is employed with Carolina Power and Light Co. in Southport.

Parties Held

Following the wedding rehearsal Friday, Oct. 25, the groom's parents,

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Tripp, entertained the wedding party at the Sizzling Sirloin Steakhouse in Shallotte.

Other pre-nuptial parties included a miscellaneous shower given on Sept. 11 by Sheila Reaves and Gina Purdue at the Reaves residence in Leland.

On Oct. 19, the bride-elect and groom were honored with a shower and party given by Mr. and Mrs. Don Hobson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Andrews at the Andrews' home at Ocean Isle Beach.

Long Bay Members Get Tips On Growing Flowering Bulbs

Long Bay Garden Club members learned the how, where and when of successfully growing bulbous flowers at their Oct. 17 meeting, held at the home of Jamie Ward in Shallotte.

The program "Discover Endless Beauty, Bounty—Plant Bulbs," was presented by Vicki Jones of Ocean Isle Beach, a National Council Flower Show judge. She shared posters, brochures and instructions on how, where and when to plant these varied flowering forms.

Jones also gave specific instructions on how to force the blooms into early flowering for use as holiday gifts and to brighten indoor settings during the winter.

Members allocated $500 to the club's continuing civic beautification project, which is landscaping the grounds of the West Brunswick Branch of the Brunswick County Public Library.

A club workshop on making baskets was to be held in early November, with member Dianne Baxley as instructor.

Members were also encouraged to prepare three items to sell at the club's fundraising auction at the November meeting, and to invite guests to attend.

Dianne Baxley and Sibyl McLamb displayed artistic designs interpreting "Pumpkin Artistry" for the group's enjoyment. Vicki Jones and Doris Olivito provided refreshments.
