Little Miss Reindeer Will Be Crowned Dec. 3

Tuesday, Dec. 3, is the date set for the Little Miss Reindeer Pageant sponsored by The Feed Our Hungry Children Boat Parade.

The pageant begins at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of Shallotte Middle School.

Little Miss Reindeer contestants will be between seven and 12 years old and will compete in party dress and answer two surprise questions.

A Little Miss Fawn, a girl between ages three and six, will also be crowned.

There is a $5 registration fee. Interested girls and their parents can sign up at Calabash Marine and Sports Center in Calabash.

Winners and runners-up will ride on a float in the Shallotte Christmas parade on Dec. 7 as well as reigning over the festivities in Calabash Dec. 14, the day of the boat parade.

Admission to the pageant is $2 per person. Proceeds will be used to buy food for needy families in Brunswick and Horry counties during the Christmas season.

Festival Benefits Hospice

The third annual Festival of Trees to benefit Hospice of the Lower Cape Fear will begin Saturday, Nov. 30, and will run through Friday, Dec. 6, in the Hilton Inn ballroom in Wilmington.

Sixty Christmas trees will be decorated with differing themes by various clubs, individuals and businesses.

Doll collections, displays from the Teddy Bear Club, antique toys and trains, antique furnishings, miniature collections, and duck decoys will also be shown.

Santa's Shoppe will offer for sale gift items made by various community groups.

Members of the Wilmington Civic Ballet will bring dolls and toys "to life" as they mingle with the crowd.

Drawing will be held for two Vogue bears with wardrobes, a handmade quilt and a solid oak end table. Tickets are $1 each.

Festival admission tickets are $3 at the door or $2 when bought in advance from Hospice volunteers.

Hospice is a program of care and support for terminally ill patients and their families in Brunswick and neighboring counties.
