

Norris, Etheridge Vows Are Exchanged

Melissa Dawn Norris and Bailey Randy Etheridge were married Sunday, Nov. 24, in a 3 p.m. ceremony at Letties Grove Pentacostal Church in Shallotte.

Rev. Maurice Milliken performed the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bennett Norris of Shallotte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Etheridge of Supply.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin and Venice lace. The beaded bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and was enhanced by leg o' mutton sleeves. The full skirt formed a chapel length train. It featured a bow set off the gathered skirt. Heather Doshier, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a formal dress of red organza and Rochelle lace. The bodice featured a scooped neckline with a lace ruffle and edged ruffled sleeves. At the back, the full skirt fell into layers of Rochelle lace.

Heath Doshier, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer. He wore a white suit with short pants.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Greg Duran, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Watson, Chris Stanley and Kelwin Ferguson. The Durans sang "Then There Was You," while the Watsons and Mrs. Duran sang "Love Goes On Forever," an original song composed for the wedding couple by Mrs. Duran.

Connie Powell directed the wedding and Sheri Thomas attended the guest register.

On Saturday evening, the groom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at Margie's Restaurant.

A reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Murden, aunt and uncle of the bride, followed the wedding ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hurston Hickman greeted guests and Meleta Brittain attended the punch bowl.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the newlyweds were to be at their home in Riverside subdivision, Supply.

Faulk, Estep Exchange Vows

Sara A. Faulk and Harold L. Estep were married in Sabbath Home Baptist Church Saturday, Nov. 30, at 2 p.m.

Rev. Ronald Cook of Dillon, S.C., conducted the double-ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with candelabra, palms and baskets of pink and white flowers.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest W. Faulk Jr. of Greensboro, wore a white catinesse gown with a Schiffl yoke and collar, shirred sleeves, a peplum waistline accented with a bead motif, an attached train, and a matching headpiece with a short hemmed veil. She carried a cascade of pink and white sweetheart roses with color-coordinated ribbons.

Debbie Pözil of Greensboro, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor. She wore a rose polyester lustreglo gown with a draped bodice and cowl back and carried a single white rose.

Bridesmaids were Bonnie Cox of Tabor City and Connie Boyte of Holden Beach. They were dressed identically to the matron of honor.

The groom, the son of Edna Estep of Dayton, Tenn., had Virgil Roberts of Holden Beach as his best man.

Ushers were Greg Bellamy and Jim Griffin, both of Holden Beach.

Maxine Grainger of Dillon provided wedding music.

The bride's aunt, Elizabeth Haywood, directed the wedding.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, followed the ceremony at 1105 Ocean Boulevard West, Holden Beach.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of UNC-Greensboro, with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. The groom is a 1972 graduate of Ray County High School. The couple plans to reside at 285 Brunswick Avenue, Holden Beach.

Homes Tour Set In Whiteville

A Christmas tour of five homes in Whiteville is being presented Thursday, Dec. 12 from 5-9 p.m. by the Waccamaw Academy.

Homes on the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. John Munroe, Dr. and Mrs. James Rabon and Dr. and Mrs. James Sutherland.

Tickets may be purchased for $5 at Waccamaw Academy in Whiteville or at the door of the first house visited.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening at the Munroe home. The Suzuki Violinist, under the instruction of Linda Rolfe Thigpen, will perform Christmas music at 8 p.m. at the Munroe home.

Henrys Have A Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Henry II of Ocean Isle Beach have announced the birth of a daughter, Tara Rene Henry.

She was born Nov. 21 at 9:26 a.m. at Brunswick Hospital in Supply and weighed eight pounds, six ounces.

She has a sister, Mindy Michelle Henry, 4½.

Brunswick Town Site Plans Christmastide Open House

Contemporary and 18th Century observances of Christmas will mingle when Brunswick Town State Historic Site holds open house Sunday, Dec. 15, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The annual event is sponsored by the Friends of Brunswick Town, staff and the local communities.

Live seasonally-appropriate entertainment will be provided and traditional cakes and cookies will be served.

Bolivia Elementary School fourth- and fifth-grade students will decorate the lobby Christmas tree on Dec. 5th.

The visitors center will also be adorned with 18th Century decorations and guests will be greeted by costumed staff members.

Following the open house, a candlelight vesper service will be held at 5 p.m. in the ruin of St. Philips Church. The service is sponsored by the St. Philips Episcopal Church of Southport, where the Rev. Frank Ross is rector.

Brunswick Town is located between Southport and Wilmington on N.C. 133, adjacent to Orton Plantation.

Admission is free and open to the public.

Point VFD Slates Dinner

Shallotte Point Volunteer Fire Department will hold the annual fire district covered dish supper Thursday, Dec. 5, at 6:30 p.m. at the fire station.

A queen and little fireman will be selected from children residing in the community to ride in the Shallotte Christmas Parade, said Joyce Land.

She urged parents of children between the ages of six and 12 in the district to bring them to the firehouse.

Names of the children will be placed in boxes and the names of a boy and a girl drawn.

Other children may also ride the firetruck if their fathers accompany them, said Land. More information on the dinner and drawing are available from Land at 754-6985.
