

Hardee-Martin Vows Are Spoken

Miss Sonya Hardee of Conway, S.C. and Morgan Martin of Galivants Ferry, S.C. were married Saturday, Nov. 9 at Sharon Baptist Church in Longs, S.C.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hardee of North Myrtle Beach and the granddaughter of Mrs. Lessie Hardee of Hickman's Crossroads and the late Ashburn Hardee, and Mrs. Elva Russ of Ocean Isle Beach and the late Bennie Russ.

The Rev. Shedron Suggs performed the double-ring ceremony. Musicians were Debbie Williams of Longs and Terri Allen Nash of Chapin, S.C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight satin featuring a sweetheart neckline and melon sleeves. The bodice was lavished with Alercon lace and seeded pearls. The full-length skirt swept into a chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a headpiece of pearls and silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of lilies, roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Mondie Hardee of North Myrtle Beach, niece of the bride, and honorary bridesmaids were Sherri Holloway of Columbia, S.C. and Regina Hardee of North Myrtle Beach, sisters of the bride, and Lynda Hardee of North Myrtle Beach, sister-in-law of the bride.

Flower girls were Monica Hardee of North Myrtle Beach, niece of the bride, and Mary A. Martin, daughter of the groom. They were attired in royal blue dresses. Floral arrangements consisted of roses and baby's breath with blue and white ribbon streamers.

Lonnie Martin was his son's best man. Ushers were Albert Johnson of Galivants Ferry, cousin of the groom, and Benjy Hardee of North Myrtle Beach, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of rose-colored silk and the groom's mother wore a street-length dress of blue silk. Each wore a white rosebud corsage.

Mr. Joy Valcarcel of North Myrtle Beach directed the wedding and Mrs. Lyn Hester of North Myrtle Beach attended the guest register.

A reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the Holiday Inn North. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Jean Russ of Ocean Isle Beach and Mrs. Fran Phillips of North Myrtle Beach, aunts of the bride.

Following a trip to Lancaster, Pennsylvania and Williamsburg, Virginia, the couple will reside in Galivants Ferry.

The bride is a graduate of North Myrtle Beach High School and the University of South Carolina with a degree in criminal justice. She is employed with the S.C. Department of Parole and Community Corrections as a parole officer.

The groom is a graduate of Aynor High School and Francis Marion College and received a law degree from the University of South Carolina. He is deputy solicitor for the 15th Judicial Circuit.

Pre-nuptial events included a rehearsal supper at the church fellowship hall given by Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Martin on Nov. 8. A bridal shower on Oct. 18 was given at the home of Mrs. Joyce Hardee hosted by Lynda and Regina Hardee and Sherri Holloway. A pig picking in honor of the couple was given Oct. 19 by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gordon at their home in Murrells Inlet, S.C.

A miscellaneous shower was given by friends of the couple at the church fellowship hall in Aynor, S.C. Oct. 22. The bride was honored with a brunch and shower Oct. 26 at the home of Mr. Lynn Hester of North Myrtle Beach given by Mrs. Joy Valcarcel and Mrs. Lynn Hester.

VFW Auxiliary Collects Food

The Ladies Auxiliary of Calabash VFW Post 7288 will help collect canned goods and staple items for the needy this holiday season, said spokesman Eva Gray.

Members have placed a collection box at the Security Savings and Loan Association office in Calabash for contributions. These will be turned in to Feed The Hungry Children Christmas boat parade committee for distribution in Brunswick and Horry counties.

At the parade, auxiliary members will also sell "buddy" poppies in memory of veterans.

Garden Club Raised $900

Long Bay Garden Club members raised more than $900 selling handmade items at Vicki Jones' home at Ocean Isle Beach on Nov. 21.

Birdie Frink, assisted by Marilyn Dowless, served as auctioneer for the event.

The money will be used to fund the club's community service projects. Also, club members filled two Thanksgiving baskets with canned goods and staples for the needy.

Their next meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 5, at 6 p.m. at Betty Harrelson's home. Members will make wreaths to decorate the West Brunswick Branch Library in Shallotte.
