Aglow To Hear Jean Leggett

The Shallotte Women's Aglow Fellowship will hear its president, Jean Leggett, at its Saturday, Dec. 14, meeting at Jane's Seafood Restaurant No. 1 on the Holden Beach Road.

A fellowship period begins at 9:30 a.m. with coffee and doughnuts, followed by the meeting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Leggett has served as president of the fellowship for two years and has taught Bible studies. She says God has placed two prayers in her heart: 1) that she would become a true worshiper of God and 2) that she might know Him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his suffering.

A nursery will not be available until further notice.

More information is available from Pam Moon, 579-2953.

Baptist Association Honors Missions Director Waisner

Rev. A. R. Waisner, director of missions of the Brunswick Baptist Association, was honored by the association with a retirement service Nov. 17 at the Supply Baptist Church. He will retire on Dec. 31 after 17 years as director. The Waisners will make their home in Salisbury.

Fellow ministers spoke in tribute Waisner's services. They were Rev. George Shore, director of associational development of the Baptist State Convention; Rev. James Whitworth, pastor of the host church; and Rev. Jesse Bentley, former association moderator.

Susan C. Carson of the association's historical committee highlighted major events during Waisner's years with the association.

On behalf of the association, WMU Director Rebecca Chapman presented the Waisners a silver tea service, a videocassette recorder and a check.

The service and reception afterward were videotaped so the Waisners would have a permanent

Musical Planned

Jennies Branch Baptist Church will present a Christmas musical, "The Reason for the Season," on Sunday and Monday, Dec. 15 and 16, at 7 p.m.

Isaiah Mejia, minister of music and youth, will direct the 52 participating adults and youth, with Latham Stanley serving as narrator.

"Maybe this Christmas can be different for you and your family," the narrator suggests. "Not just an empty celebration of little ceramic nativity figures that we get out and dust off once a year, but looking at Christmas as a relevant life-changing experience—the birthday of Jesus, Jesus Christ."

Rev. Jesse Bentley and the congregation invite the public to attend. There is no charge. The church is located on N.C. 179 near Brick Landing.

I WALKED IN HEAVEN
WITH JESUS

Dr. Percy Collett will tell about the beautiful Throne of God and how he went to heaven in the spirit. His body stayed on earth, his soul went to heaven; a six hour journey to heaven, a six hour journey back to the earth. Five and one-half days in heaven making it six days in all. God rested on the seventh day, He is building the new heaven. I saw the new Jerusalem, the temple, the sea of glass, the River of Life and millions of angels. I saw my mother, my father, my brother, my sister, both of my grandfathers and grandmothers and many of the soul winners I knew on earth including Smith Wigglesworth, Aimee MacPherson, Charles O. Benham my first pastor and the thousands of martyrs under the altar of God. I saw Paul and Silas, Peter and John, Abraham and Moses. Moses was walking with Jesus. I saw the new earth being created and millions of stars with faces looking toward heaven and singing. I heard the beautiful music and thousands of instruments being played by angels, I saw the brazen and golden altar. I talked to John of Revelation, learned more about this wonderful book of Revelation than all the prophets on this earth have ever told. I walked with Jesus, He called me Percy, I called him Jesus. That is what He told me to do. No earthly titles in heaven. Jesus especially opened the Lamb's Book of Life for me, my new name was in there. I spoke no English in heaven. God's language comes from the inward man. You talk in the spirit, you understand what is said in heaven.
