

WINNER in the 21-40 ft. class is this craft owned by Martin Feldt which represented the town of Holden Beach. Feldt is on the bow in a Santa Claus suit and his passengers are dressed as the Wise Men.

THE SWIFT SHIP I out of Little River captured parade honors in the 41-100 ft. class.

Boat Parade Raises Money

won by Ralph Faircloth of Brooksville, followed by Michael Price of Loris, second.

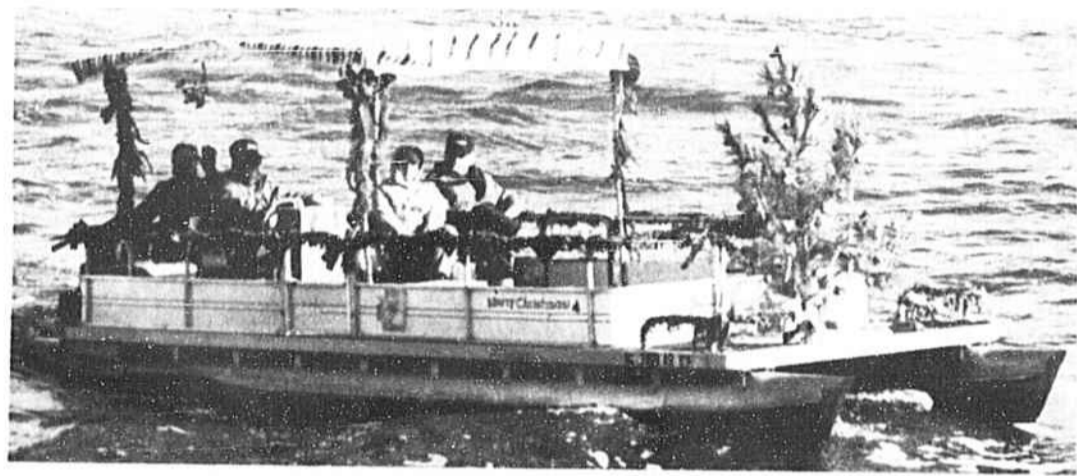

Festivities began early Saturday morning along the waterfront at Calabash. Activities included bingo, kiddie rides, clowns, entertainment by blue grass bands, local bands and the West Brunswick High School Jazz Ensemble.

Winning the prize for the best decorated site was Patti and Darius Lewellyn for their offices in Calabash, Lewellyn Realty and Lewellyn-Lewis Builders. Canupp said they declined to accept a plaque which went with the honor. Instead, they asked that the cost of the plaque be applied to the fund to feed the hungry.

Canupp praised individuals and organizations which pitched in to help in the fund-raising effort, including the fire department and rescue squad of Calabash, the VFW, and several owners who allowed events to be set up in their seafood restaurants.

A DECORATED pontoon boat participated in the parade.

ANOTHER big boat loaded with passengers was Sam Bierworth's "Mary B. III" out of Calabash.
