Accepts Cookie Prize

Shalotte Middle School student Mike Brown accepts the $100 first prize that his parents won for selling the most cookies in the Parent Teachers Organization (PTO) annual November fund drive. School principal Mark Owens (left) and teacher Emma Lou Edwards look on as PTO president Gary Poulos present the $100 bill to Mike. Total cookie sales for the entire school amounted to $35,000 from which the school realized approximately $10,000.

Christmas Eve Special To Be Aired

"Christmas Eve Celebration—Live from Bethlehem," will be broadcast by WJKA TV-26 Tuesday, Dec. 24 at 5 p.m., according to a news release from the station.

Live coverage of the mass, including communion conducted by Jacob Joseph Beltritty, Latin patriarch of Jerusalem, will be among the program highlights.

There will be English language introduction to program and commentary throughout, except during the mass.

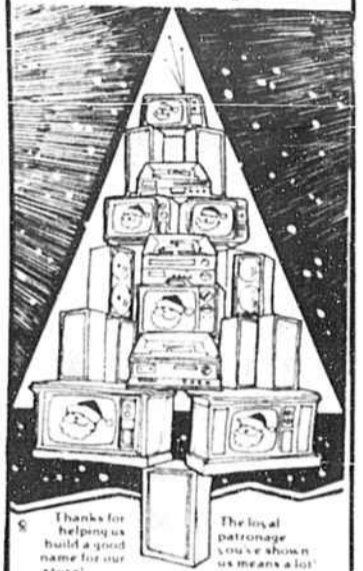

Coverage of the events around the city will include the bells of Bethlehem ringing and several choirs from Israel and around the world singing in Manger Square.

There will be taped coverage of the procession of the Patriarch from Jerusalem to Bethlehem which will take place earlier in the day.

Also included will be music interludes by the Hallelujah Choir and scripture readings from the New Testament.

Following this special presentation the Wilmington Boys Choir will present a segment of their favorite songs.
