

Rice, Hull Exchange Wedding Vows

Kimberly Anne Rice and Jerry Dale Hull, both of Winnabow, were married on Saturday, Dec. 7, at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church in Raleigh.

Rev. B.S. George officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony. Carl H. Rice Jr., the bride's brother, served as acolyte at the wedding communion.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. I. Wally Ausley of Holden Beach and Raleigh and Carl H. Rice Sr. of Raleigh. The groom is the son of Mrs. Deloris C. Hull and Jerry D. Hull, both of Wilmington.

Escorted by her stepfather, the bride wore a formal white satin gown which featured a pear-trimmed Schifflli embroidered high collar, a lace-flounced sweetheart neckline and bodice and leg-of-mutton sleeves ending in points over the wrists.

The basque waist was trimmed with pearl-studded Venice lace. The full skirt extended into a chapel-length train with a lace-flounced hemline. The white satin bridal hat was overlaid with Schifflli embroidery with pearl accents and a finger-tip length veil and blusher of white illusion.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, freesia, chrysanthemums, Fraser fir, and glossy ivy.

Adrienne Rice, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a full-length Edwardian gown of daphne rose knit, with a sweetheart neckline and Schifflli embroidery trim. She carried a hurricane chamber-candlestick encircled with a miniature grapevine wreath trimmed in holly and poinsettia by the bride.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Douglas Shaw, Mrs. James McQueen Williams, and Mrs. Steven David LeFrancois, all of Raleigh. Their gowns were of burgundy and identically styled as the honor attendants'. They, too, carried antique brass chamber candlesticks ringed in a grapevine wreath with ribbon streamers of the dress color.

The groom's best man was his uncle, Gary Horne of Wilmington. Ushers were Steve LeFrancois of Raleigh, Ray Snyder of Fincastle, Va., and Randy Lawhorn of Wilmington. Mrs. James Robert Hayes Jr. directed the wedding.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother and stepfather welcomed guests to a reception in the church parish hall. Attending the guest register was Mrs. Albert Morris Rice, and assisting in serving were Mrs. Gary Horne of Wilmington and Mrs. Morris Rice II of Raleigh, sister-in-law of the bride.

The mother of the groom gave a rehearsal dinner on Friday night in Raleigh at the Brentwood Park Clubhouse.

Mrs. James Lister and Mrs. Shirley Meadows, both of Raleigh, hosted a bridesmaids' champagne brunch on Saturday morning at the N.C. State Faculty Club.

Also, Mrs. LeFrancois, Mrs. Shaw, and Miss Rice feted the bride at a shower held at the LeFrancois home in Raleigh in November.

Following a honeymoon on Grand Cayman Island in the Caribbean, the couple will reside in Winnabow. They are both employed by Miller Building Company of Wilmington.

Homemakers Shared Gifts

Town Creek Home Extension Club members and their guests exchanged gifts at their Dec. 9 meeting at Town Creek Township Park.

Members who attended were Mary Tharp, Letha Rabon, Peggy Young, Carolyn Young, Lena Beechum and Marie Young and the club welcomed Louise Harrison as a new member. Guests were Amy Annette, Joe Young, B.J. Jones, Doug White, Ed Tharp, Lee Wescott and Herb Young.

The club will meet Jan. 13 at 9 a.m. at the park for a program entitled, "Are You at Risk for Heart Disease?" Visitors are welcome.

Members Share Gardening Tips

Members shared useful ideas for home and garden at the December meeting of the Sunset Sands Garden Club.

The club met at the home of Mary Walsh, with Patricia Brosius and Lyla Esler as co-hostesses.

Frances Gravatt offered suggestions on preparing bulbs and planting for spring blooms.

Ruth Assmussen told how to make suet candles for the birds and Irene Parker and Julia Thomas gave a variety of helpful household hints.

After a short business meeting, refreshments were served and fun and games followed, said spokeswoman Pat Brosius. Prize winners were Doris Minor, Julia Thomas and Brosius.

A Christmas party for members and their spouses will be held Saturday night, Dec. 14, at the club's Holiday House. Club members have decorated the Sea Trail office as their second annual Holiday House.

Homemakers Aid Needy Family

Supply Extension Homemakers will donate $30 for Christmas gifts for a needy family.

Members voted on the project at their Dec. 10 meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara Schuester.

Also during the holidays, clubmembers Millie Evans and Gladys Holden will make hospital visitations on behalf of the club.

Attending the Christmas meeting were members Gladys Geeler, Liz Busby, Clare Thomer, Aileen Miles, Marion Downer, Rosemary Whaley, Virginia Robertson, Aileen Miles, Pat Nash and a guest, Irma Lana.
