The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stanley of Shallotte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Galloway of Supply.

The Rev. Jesse Bentley officiated, and Isaiah Mejia was pianist and soloist. Songs included "You and I," "Whither Thou Goest," and "With This Ring."

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white organza that featured a fitted bodice, Queen Anne neckline and long tapered sleeves sprinkled with Venice lace appliques and pearls. The back bodice was accented with covered buttons.

The smooth circular skirt of organza was edged entirely with silk Venice lace appliques. Her headpiece was a cap of Venice lace with Austrian crystals and pearls attached to pencil-edged, fingertip bridal illusion. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, rubrum lilies, and lemon leaves. It was accented with pearl spray and picot satin ribbon.
