

Local Girls Win Pageants

Two Holden Beach area girls will represent the N.C. Fourth of July Festival during the coming year.

Dayna Lee Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Ramsey of Holden Beach, was crowned Miss N.C. Fourth of July and Amanda Causey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Causey, also of Holden Beach, was crowned Little Miss Fourth of July in the joint pageant held Saturday in Southport.

They succeed candace Somers of Long Beach and Kelly Nicole White of Shallotte respectively.

The N.C. Fourth of July Festival, held annually in Southport, is the state's official Independence Day observance.

During her reign, Miss Ramsey will travel extensively promoting the festival, the Southport-Oak Island area and Brunswick County in general. Traveling with her at various times will be her parents as well as chaperones Connie Ledgett and Susan Justice.

She will receive a $1,000 scholarship, up to three appearance gowns and a trophy.

Miss Ramsey, a 1986 graduate of West Brunswick High School, competed in the 1985 and 1986 Miss Brunswick County Pageants, placing as first runner-up and earning the Miss Congeniality vote in the 1985 event.

"It's going to be a lot of fun," she said of the reign that will end at the close of next year's N.C. Fourth of July Festival. "I'm so excited."

Catherine Melissa Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hart of Southport, was named Miss Congeniality at the pool-side pageant Saturday.

Runners-up in the Miss Fourth of July event were Dawn D. Hemby, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Larry Hemby of Southport, first; and Sonya Renee Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Williams of Shallotte, second.

In the Little Miss event first runner-up was Carrie Danielle Johnson, daughter of Cheryl and Jimmy Herring of Delvina. The second runner-up was Kendra LaDane Bullington, daughter of Bill and LaDane Bullington of Ocean Isle Beach.

Lions Off To 'Roaring' Start

Shallotte Lions got their new club year off to a "roaring" start on July 3 with Harry L. Pigott officiating at his first meeting as president.

The major goal for the club this year, he announced at the transition meeting, is to furnish a seeing eye dog and training to a member of the community.

Guest speaker was Darnell Whitt Jr., a U.S. Department of Defense advisor with the Pentagon, reported club publicist Jess Parker. Whitt discussed a wide range of foreign policy issues, commenting on topics ranging from disarmament to aid for contras in Nicaragua. Whitt is the son of Lion Darnell Whitt of Ocean Isle Beach.

Pigott presented perfect attendance awards to Lions James Bellamy, Leonard Ferguson, Bobby Long, Etheridge Ludlum, Jess Parker and Percy Woodard.

Long also received the past president's pin.

He presented Maynard Owens with the "Lion of the Year" award for the 1985-86 club year.

The Holden Beach Senior Citizens will hold their annual Christmas in July celebration July 26 at Coastlaine Park in N.C. 130 (Holden Beach Road), said Myrtle Hanke, secretary.

Members gather July 14 at 6:30 p.m. at Joe's Barbecue in Shallotte for a social meeting.

Tracy Myrtle Evans was born at 10:05 p.m. June 27 to John and Pam Evans of Ash. Born at Loris Community Hospital in Loris, S.C., Tracy weighed four pounds, 14 ounces and was 16 3/4 inches in length.

Her maternal grandparents are Robert and Cindy Tracy of Atlanta, Ga., and the late Polly O'Brien.

Paternal grandparents are Fess and Mitchell Evans of Ash and the late Myrtle H. Evans.

Knights Begin 'Operation Lamb'

For the next two weekends, July 11-12 and 18-19, Knights of Columbus from Our Lady of the Rosary Council will collect funds for the mentally retarded.

In the annual national project, "Operation Lamb", Knights distribute Footsie Roll candy in local shopping areas and ask for donations.

Last year, said Grand Knight Roger W. Fuller, $2,000 was collected in Brunswick County. Checks were presented to the Brunswick Interagency Project and Cape Fear Council Boy Scouts of America for their work with the mentally handicapped.

Jim Whetzel is coordinating "Operation Lamb" in Southport and the surrounding beach area, while Harry Rober has charge of the southern portion of the county.
